Notes to the Accounts

1. Basis of preparation: These draft figures use the information provided by the trustee and disclose the personal funds paid directly for charitable activities.

2. Personal funds paid directly: The £10,000 was paid from the trustee's personal account directly towards charitable activities. It did not pass through the charity's bank account. The trustee reports that the amount was treated as charity income and was spent in full during the period.

3. Charitable support: The reported payments were £4,000 in Ghana, £4,000 in Cameroon and £2,000 in Nigeria. They supported rent, back-to-school costs, older people, people experiencing homelessness, parents and other charitable work. A breakdown by purpose was not provided.

4. Trustee payments: No trustee received remuneration or reimbursement from the charity. The £10,000 described above was provided from the trustee's own funds and paid directly for charitable purposes.

5. Approval: These accounts must be approved by the trustees and signed by a trustee before submission.
