TRUSTEES' REPORT 2nd AUGUST 2024 - 1st AUGUST 2025

Objectives and activities

The purpose of Chaitech is to advance education in Artificial Intelligence (AI), Internet of Things (IoT) and mobile communications by means of providing assistance to children and other young people in the Eastern Caribbean who wish to start their own technology-based startup businesses or direct their technology skills towards improving services relevant for the general public, through mentoring, primarily by UK-based technology entrepreneurs and academics, and providing grants for software and hardware required to develop prototypes and proofs of concepts for their proposed solutions.

In pursuit of the above purpose, Chaitech engaged in discussion with the volunteers in St Lucia on how to revive the pursuit of these activities in a rapidly changing environment where our previous approaches might no longer have sufficient impact.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. We continue to regard the above purpose as publicly beneficial in terms of helping improve opportunities for youth technology-based enterprise in countries where resources in that area are limited. We could not identify any detriments arising from our pursuit of the above purpose.

Achievements and performance

Chaitech organised meetings with volunteers in St Lucia to discuss further direction of engagement in a rapidly changing environment, exploring the options on the intersection of technology with local art, history, and folklore. Activities for the next period were discussed and draft plans laid accordingly. Chaitech has also learned that previous Chaitech grant recipients continue to work on the projects they have kicked off with the mini grants from previous periods.

Financial review

Chaitech has not received further donations in the period. The only significant expenses were linked to accounting services and software.

Structure, governance, and management

Chaitech is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation and is governed by the Constitution of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). New trustees may be appointed by the vote of the existing trustees, according to the CIO Constitution: "In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO." The aim is therefore to appoint trustees that represent a mixture of technology and business expertise, and that ensure a connection between the knowledge and experience base in the UK and elsewhere, and the community of aspiring young tech entrepreneurs in the Eastern Caribbean.
