Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The purposes of the charity are the advancement of the Christian faith in accordance with the Basis of Faith, and such other charitable purposes as shall, in the opinion of the charity trustees, put into practice the Christian faith in accordance with the Basis of Faith, including but not limited to the prevention and relief of need, hardship and sickness and the advancement of Christian education, in any part of the world.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects

In the 39 months since the end of the Covid lockdown, the charity United for the Gospel Europe has sponsored and presented 55 different conferences on the continent of Europe in sixteen countries with participants attending from 32 different European countries. Conferences were held in Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Denmark (2), Croatia (3), The Czech Republic (2), England (19), The Faroe Islands (2), Finland, Germany, Greece, The Netherlands, Montenegro, Norway, Poland (10), Romania (4), Serbia, Slovakia, Scotland, Sweden and Switzerland. These activities have continued in the reporting period in question.

The conferences aimed to equip and train church leaders in the Christian faith, to supply resources and publications grounding pastors in the gospel of Christ, and to encourage congregations throughout Europe to be catalysts of Christ-like love in their communities.

Throughout the year remote instruction for leaders in several European nations was carried out through weekly Zoom meetings.

In the preparation of this report and the management of the charity's activities, the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities

Grants are issued, as appropriate, at the discretion of the trustees as exercised on a case-by-case basis.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Preaching in various churches in the UK

Publication of Christian resources, including both books and articles

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has just one paid post (this being the charity's only ongoing financial commitment). An official reserves policy has not yet been developed but at present is being maintained at a minimum of two months' salary. This will be ratified shortly by the trustees.

Further financial review details

Ongoing funding is provided by The Gospel Coalition towards the cost of employing the charity's one paid post, supplemented by charitable giving from individual donors. This employment, and its associated ancillary costs, is the charity's chief source of expenditure from its unrestricted funds. This paid post is responsible for the delivery of most of the activities identified above.

Most of the charity's other income during the period to which this report pertains consisted of one-off donations from individuals.

The charity also holds funds given in prior periods to a restricted fund appeal to support churches providing humanitarian aid to Ukrainian refugees in Eastern Europe. Funds are directed to churches following due diligence to ensure funds are used by the churches specifically for the support of refugees fleeing the ongoing war in Ukraine. No disbursements were made during the reporting period but were made in prior periods and have been made since.
