

Annual report 1st April 2024 to 31 March 2025

Aims & Objectives Joels Goals initial aim was to provides support for young victims and families of children that have been subjected to hate crime. This work has progressed to work with those with Mental health issues, that could lead to suicidal thoughts, after being subjected to hate crimes, or PTSD after witnessing or finding a suicide victim. We continue to listen and provide advice guidance and practical support referencing agencies to alleviate their sense of hurt, shock and loneliness. We provide a listening ear and a range of health improving materials, both independently or via our referral partners.

Inclusion, signposting and listening ear for vulnerable adults who seek comfort or support with like-minded people.

Summary of activities,

April 2024

Each Monday evening based at Big Life Liverpool the trial men's mental health group met from 7pm to 9pm focusing on men's mental health and sharing experiences from their day-to-day life. Signposting if required to do so ensuring a safe environment for all.

Refreshments Coffee, tea, biscuits, and cake were provided along with a donation of food for the Big life Charity each week from Joels Goals Charity.

May 2024

05th May 2024 The men's mental health group for Joel's Goals hired transport and travelled to Wales to complete the walk to Snowden. Raising awareness for men's mental health and wellbeing. This was a successful and memorable event creating positivity and confidence for all who were involved.

Joels Goals Charity continued the weekly men's mental health group each Monday evening, along with reaching out to the homeless communities providing donations for clothes, food and refreshments for all events.

June 2024

The founder Ruth contacted the knitting group from the feel-good factory in Netherton to order hats, scarves and gloves in preparation for the donation to Action for homeless in October 2024.

Joels' goals continued to support via online activity, networking and providing continuous support and signposting to various charities.

July 2024

The founder continued with community events supporting mental health. In addition to this, reaching out to bereaved parents and having get togethers to support one another throughout July.

August 2024

Community cafe events meeting up with bereaved parents with continuous networking and signposting

September 2024

Continuous networking and raising awareness. However, met up with Carol Golightly from Thingwall Community centre with plans to introduce a weekly open house project, providing hot food and drinks to people within the community. The incentive here was to alleviate feelings of loneliness throughout the community offering an open safe space to come in chat and be provided with hot/cold food and drinks.

October 2024

Joels Goals Charity organized and collected the generous donations
