Para 1.20	We made donations to: - Jessica's Journey – supporting a young girl from Lowestoft who is living with Neuroblastoma Cancer - Magic Breakfast – a children's Charity in the UK, providing daily nutritious breakfasts to children in need We worked with the Young Ambassador winner Ashton to help him develop his work creating items out of pallets. He was able to buy some new tools and print some promotional items with his prize money. One member of the club has been making bird boxes and we sold these throughout the year. The profits go into our charity pot which we then donate throughout the year to charities of our members choosing. As usual, we supported several other Lions clubs with their activities and got involved with some gleaning days which rescue surplus fresh produce and redistribute it to charities such as soup kitchens through Fareshare. Our Club also organised District Convention which took some attention away from our usual fundraising and service activities.
