Structure, governance and management

Governing document & Constitution

The Staffordshire Adults Autistic Society is a registered Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), established under a written constitution dated 9 October 2020.

Trustee selection methods

Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of 3 years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Objectives and activities

Objectives

The objectives of the CIO are:

- To promote and protect the physical and mental of adults on the ASD spectrum through the provision of support and practical advice.
- To relieve distress of adults with ASD through the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation for adults in Staffordshire with Asperger/Autism with the objective of improving their conditions of life.
- To raise awareness and understanding of ASD.

The area of benefit is:

Specifically, but not exclusively Stoke-on-Trent, Newcastle-under-Lyme and the Staffordshire moorlands.

Summary of the main activities undertaken

The Staffordshire Adults Autistic Society provides peer support in several ways, including one-to-one sessions and group sessions, such as our well-attended café meet-ups. We also deliver autism training to the NHS and private companies.

Achievements and performance

SAAS continues operate under the old charity and continues to be the only group in the region offering bespoke peer-support for adult autistics by experts by experience.

Online chat groups continue to thrive and remain a safe place for social interaction, voicing hopes and fears and making friendships.

As well as the regular weekly cafes in Lichfield, Stafford and Newcastle, other satellite meetings are taking place where people need them and when the core team can manage

Financial review

Reserves Policy

The Staffordshire Adults Autistic Society is currently undertaking a review of its key policies and has not yet adopted a reserves policy.

Income

The charity's primary sources of income are financial donations and the sale of donated goods, which together provide essential funding to support its activities and services.

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
