

More to her Life Charity has completed no work during this financial period. There has been no income or expenditure during this financial period.

The founder and trustees are having a break from the charity due to personal reasons including health and family obligations.

Victoria Padmore