Period end date

Charity name: International Centre for World Peace

Charity registration number: 1191940

This annual report is created in accordance with the Charity Commissions guidance on Public benefit: reporting (PB3) and according the Statement of Recommended practice (FRSSE SORP). This report explains to the Charity Commission how the International Centre for World Peace (ICFWP) provides a public benefit and the financial state of the charity. It is important to clarify that although, the charity has been registered since 22/10/2020, the charity was only able to begin its operations 12/6/2021 due to significant delays getting a bank account opened. The delay in getting the bank account opened was caused by the banks very large backlog of applications due to the Covid 19 pandemic.

The total net asset value at the end of the period was £10,153. The trustees are satisfied with the financial performance during the period and with the financial status at the end of the period.

Reserves policy

As a non-profit making charity the trustees of ICFWP have reviewed the Charity's need for reserves in line with guidance issued by the Charity Commission:

- To ensure that the Charity is able to operate during periods of lower income.
- To ensure money is reserved for unexpected events, or any emergencies.
- To ensure our Reserves Policy is in line with our Constitution.

In the early stages the charity will be heavily reliant on the non- remunerated services of the trustees and other volunteers. Therefore, the ICFWP aims to hold £2,000 in the reserve account against unexpected emergency expenditure. This includes but is not limited to:

- Ensure there are sufficient cash reserves in the current account to cover day to day running costs, including staff training & staff meetings.
- Replace equipment as it wears out and carry out necessary maintenance.
- IT-costs.
- Travel expenses.
- Media costs
- Any other reasonable expense agreed by more than half the Committee members.

Structure, governance, and management

The ICFWP is constituted as a charitable incorporated organisation (CIO). The ICFWP has a foundation constitution model so that only trustee members can vote on the charity's strategic decisions.

In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the ICFWP. New trustees are appointed by a majority vote at a properly convened meeting by the board of trustees.
