1. Introduction

This annual report is created in accordance with the Charity Commission's guidance on Public benefit: reporting (PB3) and according to the Statement of Recommended practice (FRSSE SORP). This report explains to the Charity Commission how the International Centre for World Peace (ICFWP) provides a public benefit and the financial state of the charity.

2. Annual Report and accounts: International Centre for World Peace

The ICFWP had an income of £16,043. Since the charity's income is below the audit threshold no external examination is necessary.

3. Objectives and Activities

The object of the ICFWP is: For the public benefit, to advance the Christian faith anywhere in the World in accordance with the statements of belief appearing in the schedule, in particular but not exclusively by:

- Providing non-denominational religious education through lectures, worship and meetings;
- Producing podcasts, literature and online resources to enlighten others about the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Kingdom of God.

3.1. Activities

All the ICFWP activities have been in line with the object of advancing the Christian faith anywhere in world. The ICFWP provides a public benefit by providing religious communication in accordance with the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit: reporting (PB3) in the formats expressed in the object.

As an online Christian learning community, the ICFWP reaches people from all over the world. The public benefit of providing religious communication is carried out through delivering educational services with the aim of helping Christian believers understand their potential, purpose, role, responsibilities, and future according to the Christian faith as it is explained in the Bible. These educational services explain the historical, current, and future aspects of God's plan for world peace, and they are delivered through various channels of media: the ICFWP homepage, social media, and events. By collaborating with various Christian organisations, the ICFWP brings different speakers together and provides a cross denominational platform that brings different communities together to give the public a better understanding of the Biblical narrative and how it relates to them now and in the future. The ICFWP works to grow this online community through promoting content on Facebook, Instagram and YouTube. Below is a summarised outline of key activities the ICFWP pursued to achieve its object.

During the period of 01/01/2023 to 31/12/2023 the ICFWP has provided the following activities:

- Hosted 8 lectures.
- Posted 9 videos.

4. Achievements and performance

Because the ICFWP primarily provides its services to the public through digital technologies, performance in this report is measured based on metrics from internet platforms.

4.1. Growth

The ICFWP had an average number of between 20-30 people attending the Zoom and YouTube live-stream events. Below are statistics for the performance of the ICFWP internet media.

- Number of new Facebook followers 109*
- Number of new YouTube subscribers 31
- Number of subscribers to ICFWP newsletter 20

*Page followers are a better metric than page likes because page followers include both likes and followers. Therefore, for 2023 the metric for Facebook performance is the number of new page followers instead of likes as previous years. As a comparison with the previous year, we had 207 new followers for 2022.

4.2. Engagement

Previous years the ICFWP has reported increase in average post reactions and increase in average link clicks per post from the paid posts. However, during 2023 the ICFWP revised its strategy and will focus its primary efforts on events. Therefore, the ICFWP will not continue measuring engagement and reach for posts on the Meta-platform. For measuring engagement, the ICFWP will only use metrics for YouTube performance. Therefore, this report instead includes 3 new metrics for YouTube performance: average watch time per minute, average percentage viewed and unique viewers.

- Average watch time on YouTube: 13h for 9 videos.
- Average watch time per minute on YouTube: 25 minutes.
- Average percentage viewed: 20 percent.
- Total unique views: 962.
- Total number of YouTube video likes 32.

5. Financial review

The income received during the period was £16,043. The Charity spent a total of £ 5,917 in pursuit of the charity's objectives, leaving a net income of £10,126. The total net asset value at the end of the period was £ 34,243. The trustees are satisfied with the financial performance during the period and with the financial status at the end of the period.

6. Reserves policy

As a non-profit making charity the trustees of ICFWP have reviewed the Charity's need for reserves in line with guidance issued by the Charity Commission:

- To ensure that the Charity is able to operate during periods of lower income.

- To ensure money is reserved for unexpected events, or any emergencies.
- To ensure our Reserves Policy is in line with our Constitution.

In the early stages the charity will be heavily reliant on the non- remunerated services of the trustees and other volunteers. Therefore, the ICFWP aims to hold £2000 in the reserve account against unexpected emergency expenditure. This includes but is not limited to:

- Ensure there are sufficient cash reserves in the current account to cover day to day running costs, including staff training & staff meetings.
- Replace equipment as it wears out and carry out necessary maintenance.
- IT-costs.
- Travel expenses.
- Media costs
- Any other reasonable expense agreed by more than half the Committee members.

7. Structure, governance, and management

The ICFWP board of directors have elected a President and Vice President who both lead the operations of the charity. The organisation's operations are carried out through a team of volunteers working on events. The events are reliant on various volunteer speakers from within and outside the organisation.

8. Administrative information

The ICFWP is an international charitable incorporated organisation with directors, volunteers, and beneficiaries from all over the world. The charity's headquarters is located in at 27 Byron Avenue, Coulsdon, Surrey, CR5 2JS.
