

excellent dance performances. A great start and a first in terms of mission in Morton Stanley Park.

One of the students mentored by the previous Director for RYFC has passed her first year Theology Degree at Elim Bible College, Malvern and is very much involved with Christian work in the town of Redditch. The Chair and his wife were involved, throughout the year, in mentoring her with her studies.

RYFC Trustees have been in discussion and prayer over the past year with the new Vicar of St Stephen's Redditch, Dr Fraser Oats, who is leading an exciting and visionary renewal project in Redditch. It is so encouraging to see God moving in the town.

We are delighted that Dr Fraser will be working in partnership with RYFC. Rev Dr Fraser Oats writes:

As we had previously discussed, we would like to move forward with a model of "linked charities" working together via a mutually agreed Memorandum of Understanding. We would like to propose that I (Fraser) become a trustee of Redditch Youth for Christ, and in turn, we would like to invite Ron to become a trustee of the Redditch Renewal Churches Trust (St Stephen's). The link of trusteeship will guarantee an integration of charitable objectives and missional direction. Of course, becoming linked trustees means we would be contending for the fruitfulness and success of each charity and the specifics of their existence. But as we have identified, in simple terms, we are both passionate about reaching young people with the Gospel of Christ and seeing the church in Redditch thrive. Only by nuance of demographic focus do we differ!

We are looking forward to discerning the next steps as we seek to renew the vision for RYFC and seek the Lord's will for its future direction and work. It's a very exciting times as God is clearly moving in Redditch.

Proverbs 16.1

'Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the Lord that will stand.'
