Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of the Sikh religion for the benefit of the public in Sheffield in particular but not exclusively through the provision of a place of worship, the holding of prayer meetings, religious education, public celebration of religious festivals and cultural activities to enlighten others about Sikhism.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- 1] To advance the teachings of Sikhism
- 2] To provide & maintain a Gurdwara building to fulfil its objectives
- 3] To assist in the arrangements for the Anand Karaj (wedding) and funeral arrangements in line with the teachings of Sikhism
- 4] To do all such other lawful things that shall further the objects of the charity
- 5] To promote understanding and cohesion amongst the wider community based on equality and respect for all.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As mentioned in Section C, these activities are continuous and the local Sikh community benefit from the teaching and activities that the Shri Guru Gobind Singh Ji Sikh Temple undertakes during the year.

Many Sangrands and Gurpurbs have taken place at the Gurdwara benefitting both the public and the Sikh community. Kirtan by Ragi's supplement the offerings provided by the Gurdwara to the community.

Sadly some valued members of the congregation (Sangat) have passed away in the last year, they will be sorely missed.

Punjabi lessons for the youth continued and we thank the volunteers who have found the time to help the Gurdwara in fulfilling their objectives.

Ongoing maintenance has been carried out at the Gurdwara. This will ensure that the facilities continue to be of a high, modern standard for the benefit of the Sikh community and the public.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

All income from donations must be banked in accordance with the constitution. These reserves are to be used for the future benefit of the Shri Guru Gobind Singh Ji Sikh Temple in line with its objects.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Shri Guru Gobind Ji Sikh Temple

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Shri Guru Gobind Ji Sikh Temple (the Trust) for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
