Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The past year has seen the club become increasingly successful both on and off the football field despite the unfortunate loss of our senior men's teams we now have a Ladies team and the juniors have continued to thrive, increasing the number of girls teams playing regularly and bringing young players at the start of their football journey into the club. The CIO continues to work with our charity partners and we now have established links within our community. Trustees continued to develop further income streams with the establishment of regular hirers offering judo, aikido and boxing using the building. We ran successful junior open boys and girls tournament, plus for the first time a Ladies tournament plus our annual juniors family fun day and awards presentations. Events including Valentines Day, Easter, Halloween Parties were held as well as a Pantomime and Christmas Party with Father Christmas in attendance, having an established calendar of children's events. We continue to work well with our neighbours, the Herefordshire Football Association.

Independent Examiners Report to the Hereford Lads Club

I report on the accounts for the year ended 1st October 2024.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act.
- To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act and;
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Independent examiners statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).
