Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Righteous House teaching has been beneficial to her members through bible-based teaching that provides encouragement, hope and wisdom on daily living. Righteous House meetings provided a place for hope especially during the covid 19 pandemic. Members that attended our meetings appreciated the value provided by Righteous House in word and prayers. Righteous House has been beneficial to the society through her mental health and wellbeing events creating awareness on causes of mental health, ways to manage it and ways to seek for help. We have also organised community event on the importance of love and appreciation in family relationship.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	In this financial reporting year of 2021, we had a total of £1,672.91 as income from offerings, tithes and donations from members. While our expenses primarily covered hall rental, office supplies and other expenses associated with administrative running of righteous house.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity does not have any policy on holding reserves due to it being a small charity with continuous expenses to run the charity it becomes difficult to maintain a reserve.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£543.02 is currently our balance at the end 2021 reporting year. However as stated above this is not held as a financial reserve.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Righteous House as a small charity must continue to meet her expenses and therefore it is difficult to keep money aside as reserve as we must continue to meet all our expenses.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	There is not deficit in righteous house financial statement.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	We do not have any uncertain as a going concern. We are confident to continue to operate as a charity, both meeting our objectives and our financial obligations.
