FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2025

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Our objects as set out in our governing document are to relieve financial hardship by the provision of pro bono legal services and representation in relation to family law and the law relating to children and the provision of such other support as may be required to individuals who are:

- a) in custody;
- b) serving or who have served a prison sentence;

and who, through lack of means, would otherwise be unable to access such services to maintain contact with their children.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Significant activities

The background:

- 60% of the female prison population has experienced domestic violence, with 53% enduring emotional, physical, or sexual abuse during childhood.
- 66% of women in prison are mothers of dependent children.
- 72% of women entering prison in 2020 were imprisoned for non-violent crimes.
- Almost two thirds of women held on remand are found not guilty or given community sentences.
- An estimated 17,000 children are affected by maternal imprisonment each year.
- Only 5% of children can stay in their original homes during their mother's imprisonment.
- Despite the Criminal Justice Act 2003 recommending custodial sentences for only the most serious offences, over 72% of incarcerated women are convicted for non-violent crimes like shoplifting, fraud, or breach of the peace.
- 58% of prison sentences given to women in 2020 were for less than six months.
- Self-harm in women's prisons is nine times higher than in men's.
- 72% of women leaving prison face homelessness or unsafe accommodation.

Our mission:

Our mission is to support mothers in prison to re-establish the vital relationship with their children, which will help to minimise the effects that maternal incarceration has on the children and families.

Our Values:

- We believe that all mothers should have contact with their children, so long as it's in the best interest of the child.
- We understand the strength of the bond between mother and child, and the impact it has on both parties if this bond diminishes.
- We listen to the women in prison and understand what they need and how we can shape our work to support them.
- We collaborate with similar charities to provide the women with all the support they need, be it housing or rehabilitation.
- We make legal assistance more accessible for women in prison, as there is a lack of legal aid for private children law proceedings.
- We go beyond our day-to-day work of providing legal advice by playing a more active role advocating on behalf of our women to raise awareness and improve legal procedures for this vulnerable group.

NBR ended the year strongly in 2025, with an increase of 17% in revenue. Our costs also increased as we had a full year in our new premises. We also employed a new team member, now numbering six in the legal team and one administrative staff.

We meet our objectives by:

- a) attending clinics in women's prisons to meet the client and understand what help they need regarding their children and family circumstances;
- b) arranging remote clinics to meet with women at prisons where we are yet to host an in-person clinic;
- c) arranging legal representation for the women and supervising pro bono solicitors who will act for those clients who do not qualify for legal aid and represent them on their case;

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

- d) supervising the activities of the pro bono solicitors to ensure progress is made and the best outcome is achieved for both the client and their children.
- e) Educating the wider prison community about Family Law, including Parental Rights to ensure prison staff know how to support mothers in prison going through Family Law proceedings.
- f) Working with other charities and across the sector to increase understanding of the challenges faced by imprisoned mothers and striving to improve legal procedures and processes around this.

Research has shown that maintaining family ties reduces the likelihood of reoffending by 39% as well as being of inestimable benefit to the welfare of the children involved.

Contributions of volunteers

We are grateful for the invaluable contribution of our volunteers who have helped by:

- providing pro bono legal advice to support our clients;
- supported fundraising activities, greatly enhancing our financial stability and allowing us to expand our legal team.

We are now working with twelve law firms that provide access to around 360 solicitors from trainee to partner level who act as the pro bono solicitors on our cases. We partner with Sidley Austin LLP, Morrison Foerster, Akin, Clyde & Co, Latham & Watkins, DAC Beachcroft, Simmons & Simmons, A&O Shearman, Stephenson Harwood, Norton Rose Fulbright, Pallas and Goodwin.

We are also supported by over 120 barristers from top family law chambers who are expert in family law matters and work on a pro bono basis where clients' cases require this.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

In 2025, we did the following:

- Held 54 clinics, meeting a total of 115 women. We undertook clinics in all twelve women's prisons.
- At the time of writing, we have 95 active cases of which:
 - 27 are in initial stages (28.5%)
 - 40 are in negotiations with the opposing parties (42%)
 - 15 are in court proceedings (16%)
 - The remaining 9 are receiving advice only (9.5%)
- Among the cases currently in negotiation, NBR has already increased contact for 57.5% of clients, while in cases in court proceedings, we have achieved increased contact for 73% of clients.
- We expanded our clinic locations to include all twelve women's prisons.
- To date, we have supported 398 clients.

The impact of our work has been considerable. Having met a client, we will always seek to reach an out-of-court agreement with the person who has care of the children, which can often be successful. However, if that is not possible and it is necessary and appropriate to go to court, we and our team of volunteer solicitors will prepare the case for a hearing and instruct a specialist barrister to represent the client in court.

These cases usually require reports from CAFCASS or social services. There is often a background of domestic violence, mental health issues or other trauma. The cases range from when the mother was the main carer before arrest and is now trying to maintain contact with a child, to mothers who have not had contact with their children for some time and are trying to re-establish a relationship of some sort with their children. Some mothers do not even know where their children are. The average case takes about a year from beginning to end with multiple hearings and will often need to be reviewed even after the case has closed.

Case Study - Debbie

Debbie is a victim of violence and a substance abuser. She is in prison with a fairly long sentence.

For around a year, we tried to work with the carer of the children to effect contact as the mother wanted to reach a consensual agreement. This was not successful and so a court application was made. It may be that the children were influenced by the caring parent as to their view of their mother. There is now a progressive plan for contact put in place which will have the ongoing assistance of CAFCASS who will support the children.

PACT told us, "Debbie is really happy with the result and is feeling very hopeful about things. She said that after she had read the draft order. She was so happy with it she slept properly for the first time in a year!"

Fundraising

NBR had another very strong year of fundraising in 2025, with revenue increasing 16.3%. Our costs also increased as we had a full year in the new premises (we moved mid-2024) and we hired an additional legal team member who started in June.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

Our financial results for this year (the fourth full year of operations) was a net surplus for the year of £69,483. This was in line with the £73,474 in 2024. Achieved from voluntary donations, total income was £454,503 in 2025 (up from £390,789 in 2024). Costs for the year were £385,953, up 21.6% on the £317,315 in 2024.

Reserves at the year-end have increased to £208,408 (2024: £138,925) of which were all unrestricted. The cash balance at the year-end was £211,293 (2024: £105,562).

Reserves policy

The Trustees agreed that unrestricted reserves of 4-6 months of operating costs is appropriate to ensure we can continue to operate and provide services to our clients while responding to fluctuations in our voluntary donations. On this basis, minimum reserves would need to be around £175k (equal to 5 months of costs). Heading into 2026, unrestricted cash reserves are £211,293 (up from £105,562 at the end of 2024).

Going concern uncertainties

As with many charities, we derive all our income from voluntary donations and so remain entirely dependent on the generosity of our donors to continue in operation.

While we have no reason to believe this generosity will reduce or stop, any reduction in voluntary donation income will impact on our ability to maintain operations and in a worst-case scenario, could result in us ceasing to be a going concern.

We believe our fundraising strategies and reserves policy provide adequate protection against this eventuality.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is constituted as a company limited by guarantee, registered under the Companies Act 2006. The governing document of the charity is the Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 23 December 2019 as amended on 27 October 2020 establishing the company under company legislation.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The directors of the company are also charity Trustees for the purposes of charity law. Under the requirements of the Memorandum and Articles of Association:

- Trustees are elected by members at the Annual General Meeting.
- At other times of the year, the Board of Trustees may appoint a person who is willing to serve either to fill a vacancy or as an additional Trustee, provided the election does not cause the number of Trustees to exceed the maximum permitted. A Trustee so elected shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting.

To maintain a broad skill mix, the Board of Trustees reviews its effectiveness regularly and in the event of particular skills being needed individuals are recruited to the Board. Potential Trustees are identified from the personal networks of existing Trustees and staff and the use of website advertising. When recruiting new Trustees, we always seek to increase the diversity of the Board.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Risk management policies

Reputational risk:

The charity may be exposed to reputational risk by representing women who have committed serious offences including violence and harm to children.

We believe that all prisoners are entitled to have their views heard and their cases presented to ensure the authorities responsible for making decisions about them and their children do so with full knowledge.

We manage this risk with all such cases being examined by a trustee sub-committee that decide on a case-by-case basis what the likely merits of the case are, the likelihood of success and whether it is proportionate to the charity's resources and reputation to act for them.

Financial risk:

As we are entirely dependent on the generosity of our donors for all our income, the main financial risk we are exposed to is a significant reduction in those donations.

We manage this risk by establishing and implementing a fundraising strategy commensurate with our cash flow requirements and maintaining an appropriate level of reserves.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
