Objects and principal activities.

1. To advance the professional education of women in academia through the creation, moderation and promotion of professional peer support networks to identify and meet through collective effort, the needs of women in academia

2. To promote equality and diversity in academic professions through conducting / commissioning research for public dissemination and campaigning

3. To relieve poverty of women academics facing disadvantage or discrimination through grant-giving and provision of services & access to events / facilities

Results.

The deficit for the year amounted to £5,306

Income £641 (rounded up to the nearest £)
Expenditure £5,947 (rounded up to the nearest £)

Activity Report.

The Women in Academia Support Network (hence forth WiASN)

WiASN has continued its activities and has focused on developing 2 key areas. The membership of the Facebook group has remained fairly stable with a high rate of member engagement.

1. To support women in academia who are at risk of redundancy or who are being made redundant
2. To develop ideas for income generation via the once per month business post and a WiASN training offer
3. To sit on research steering committees and develop the reach of the network beyond the Facebook group
4. To develop channels for developing the opportunity for research funding and other types of funding, potentially via a research centre sitting within a UK university.

The board has remained stable throughout this financial period.

Taxation status.

The company is a registered charity (CIO) and under the provisions of section 505 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 is exempt from liability to taxation.

Risk Review.

The directors of the company carry out a risk analysis for each project to be entered into by the company and update this throughout the life of each project, identifying and quantifying the level of risk exposure that the company is subject to. Strategies are implemented to mitigate identified risks and their potential impact on the company.

Reserves policy.

The directors have forecast the level of unrestricted reserves available to the company for the foreseeable future and consider those reserves to be sufficient to enable the company to operate at the levels of activity proposed. They are currently 0 but efforts are being made to ensure an adequate and sustainable reserve.

Appointment of Trustees.

The directors of the company are the trustees of the charity for the purposes of charitable law. New directors are appointed by the board.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the surplus or deficit of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:-

- select suitable accounting policies and then to apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting policies have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The accounts are provided in a separate document

Accounting policies

Basis of preparation and format of the accounts

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with:

the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) issued on 16 July 2014 and with the Charities Act 2011.

Going Concern

It is the policy of the board of the company to take careful account of the funding available for each event before entering into financial commitments for that event in order to ensure that the company will be able to meet its financial commitments. The board has no reason to believe that for the foreseeable future any events are likely to occur which would put achievement of this policy at risk. Therefore the board continues to adopt the going concern policy when preparing the accounts of the company.

Gifts in kind

The statement of financial activities includes gifts in kind as resources arising and expended when they are received by the company.
