Governance and management
The charity is operated under the rules of its constitution adopted in 2020 and revised in 2021.

All new trustee candidates, who will be professed Buddhists, approved by existing council according to criteria in the constitution are nominated by the charity's members and appointed at our AGM as per the constitution.

Objectives and activities
To encourage members and others to live in accordance with the Buddha's teachings.
To support ordained members of the Triratna Buddhist Order and other ordained Buddhists at the discretion of the council.
To maintain close communication with and work under the guidance of the T B O and in co-operation with other groups with the same objectives; to bring the Buddha's teachings to the general public.

Public benefit statement
The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit, 'Charities and Public Benefit'.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit We are an international Buddhist movement bringing the Buddha's teaching to the general public. We provide meditation classes and Buddhism for the citizens of Nottingham and surrounding area.

We currently operate through our previous charity with the same name under charity number 1044031. We are in the process of arranging the transfer of our assets to this new structure as the Charity Incorporated Organisation offers a number of benefits. So far though the CIO has no income or outgoings.

Summary of the main achievements during the period
The CIO has not been operational so there have been no achievements.

Financial Review
N/A as the CIO has no income or outgoings.

Financial risks
The CIO currently has no assets as none have been transferred from the previous charity yet. We expect this to take place in the coming year.
