Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointed for a three-year term by the Charity's members (who are the trustees for the time being). The Headteacher and Chair of Governors of Central Foundation Boys' School are ex-officio trustees.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO is the advancement of education for the public benefit through the provision of support to Central Foundation Boys' School and its pupils, including (without limitation) through the support of the maintenance, enhancement or improvement of facilities, resources and educational opportunities at the School

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the period the Charity received fundraising income and has applied some of this income for charitable purposes. It is envisaged that, once it has meaningful resources to do so, the Charity will make grants to the school to cover expenditure on the maintenance, enhancement or improvement of facilities, resources and educational opportunities at the school.

The trustees confirm that they comply with their duty under section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance is relevant.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Several Board meetings were held during the year. The Charity received donations for the benefit of the school. These were made by a former trustee of the Charity.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity expects to disburse all donations in accordance with its objects and does not anticipate incurring liabilities. Accordingly, it is not anticipated that the Charity will hold significant reserves, save where amounts are held by the Charity pending disbursement.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
