Charity registration number: 1192360

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The object of the CIO is to advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales) as the charity trustees see fit from time to time, in particular but not limited to: 1 advancing the education of young people for the public benefit by making grants to those in particular from an African-Caribbean background; and 2 making grants to registered charities.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	No specific charitable giving was undertaken in this period. See also Achievements and Performance below.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, and have been supplied with and reviewed the Charity Commission's Welcome Pack for Trustees

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The founding Trustees David and Cynthia Medas wish to gift specific assets through their wills on their deaths, or during their lifetimes should funds become available, for the charitable purposes identified in Objectives and Activities above. The Trust does not actively fundraise and will pursue the charitable aims desired by its donors through careful stewardship of its existing resources, including in due course the Estate of the founders. No charitable giving was undertaken in this period.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The Charity holds £517.96 carried over from the previous period
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	This reserve is being held to cover operating costs arising
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£517.96
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	CIO Constitution
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The CIO constitution requires that “In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO” The first charity Trustees have been selected by the founders giving regard to their probity, their support of the charity's objectives, and their relevant experience with regard both to the charitable aims and the future maintenance of the founders' Estate. Future Trustees, as and when required, will be sought in accordance with the constitution, and with reference to the Charity Commission's guidance “Finding New Trustees”

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51
Other		For clarity we wish to confirm the following: In submitting a previous Annual Report 2022-23, questions on Governance Policies had been added by the Charity Commission (not within this Report but as part of the online submission). Of the 13 policies and procedures listed, we confirmed that 3 were in place, 6 were not in place and 5 were not applicable. During the following financial period, we sought further clarification by telephone from the Charity Commission, and were advised that having these policies in place is not currently a legal requirement. Because we are currently not active with no charitable giving, fundraising or financial activity (see Achievements and Performance above) - our considered position continues to be that we will not be putting further Governance Policies in place until we become active. Accordingly our online response in this current submission will be unchanged.
