

Trustees Annual Report for New Art Studio

Period 1st August 2023- July 31st 2024

Charity registration number: 1192463

Objectives and activities

The objectives of the Studio are to relieve distress of refugees and asylum seekers with mental health problems caused by the effects of trauma by the provision of art therapy programmes. New Art Studio offers exhibition opportunities as a way of raising awareness of and validating the lived experiences of refugees and asylum seekers.

New Art Studio provides refugees and asylum seekers a space to overcome trauma and rebuild their lives, led by experienced and qualified art psychotherapists, in a therapeutic art community, one day per week. Attendees are referred to NAS by the local council, or related charities such as Freedom from Torture. Our beneficiaries are referred to as Members, but the NAS is not a membership organisation, this is to reduce stigma. Our studio space has been Islington, based in a community arts venue. Members create art at their own pace, attendance is monitored but not demanded, travel expenses are reimbursed and lunch is provided. The studio model is a therapeutic community where members develop a sense of belonging and are encouraged to assist one another. The Studio psychotherapists receive professional clinical supervision.

The Trustees have had regard to the guidance of the Charity Commission on the public benefit requirement of the charity and have understood the responsibilities and liabilities of being Trustees.

Achievements and Performance

The Directors' Annual Report is available on the New Art Studio website, with more detail on the year's activities.

The Studio's work mainly takes place inside our weekly space in Islington, where members have freedom to express themselves both in art and speech and support one another. Discussion is encouraged and the Studio philosophy includes external exhibiting to develop links with organisations, such as the Migration Museum.

NAS has a register of current members and we also welcome back previous members and their families at community events; in this way the Studio supports over 30 refugees.

During the autumn 4 new members joined the main group, all from different origin countries and have made good progress in combining with the group. Our clinical process takes therapeutic time and care, as per our philosophy, since these individuals are struggling with serious trauma. In this reporting period, a qualified volunteer attended the group periodically, making good connection with the members.

New Art Studio members were invited to exhibit their work at Garden Court Chambers in Lincoln's Inn in November. We held a larger exhibition at our premises of Islington Arts Factory in April. This was well attended, including by our local MP and several members chose to speak in public about their experience in London and with New Art Studio.

In Refugee Week, one of our supporters, Allford Hall Monaghan Morris, an architects practice, brought our group to their office for a day spent sketching in their roof garden, and a workshop in July 2024 brought the group back into the outreach department of London Zoo, building on the success of the Refugia project from 2023.

“There are no barriers in art. You choose the colour you want, the shape you want, no-one can tell you what to paint...”

In September 2023 Trustees agreed that the Co Directors should have additional paid time outside the studio practice to complete administration tasks such as referrals and to develop ideas on strengthening the service. This was budgeted for as the core costs consequently rose substantially.

The Co-Directors were asked to develop a plan for an additional service for members who have become more stable and who would benefit from a group session with a ‘light touch’ supervision. A pilot project was planned and ran for 9 sessions from May to July 2024 and the Co-Directors have reported on this to Trustees. As our volunteer therapist had developed a good understanding of the project Trustees agreed it was appropriate to commit to a short paid contract for her to support Peer-led group sessions. In the Autumn term 2024 a scoping review and a programme for the new group will be created.

Financial Review

On 31st July 2023 the current assets held in cash and at the bank were £17,458. The income during FY23-24 was £52,445 as listed below. New Art Studio started the FY with reserves of £7,128.

The main item of expenditure is on salaries and this was significantly higher than previous year due pay rate increases and a change to working conditions with additional days agreed for administrative work. The part time fundraiser was paid £3,800 out of this total. Rent increases also contributed to higher overall costs. New Art Studio has no debts and £1630 is accrued to cover late invoiced items.

Grants were received from the National Lottery, the London Community Fund, the London Catalyst, Cripplegate Foundation, Drapers Charitable Trust, Arsenal Foundation and the City bridge Foundation. No grants or contracts were received from the Government or Local Authority.

The reserves, being unrestricted funds, will continue to be spent on the operating costs of the studio. The Trustees will aim to hold reserves equivalent to 2 months operation at all times, to allow lag time for grant applications and in the worst-case scenario, a closure could be planned with care for the members.

As income for the FY 23-24 has exceeded £25,000, Trustees have appointed B&M Accountancy Ltd as independent examiner and are satisfied that he has the requisite ability and practical experience to carry out a competent examination.

Plans for Future Periods

The New Art Studio will continue to operate for as long as funds will allow. New funds have been won by our fundraiser with experience in the arts sector. The Trustees together with the Co-Directors will assess the results of the pilot project for a new Peer- Led group which will allow longer standing members to move into a supported art group with more agency. This will allow an adjustment of the main therapeutic group and provide some further places for new members in due course. New Art Studio receives many referrals and has a waiting list and it is clear there is a serious need for this service.

Following the annual review of each of the Co-Directors, some changes will be made to the roles for the next year of operation starting in September 2024. Whilst the current staff, both experienced and qualified Art Psychotherapists continue to work in the studio main day, the responsibilities will be divided more between organisational areas and therapeutic aspects.

During the next year, New Art Studio will be moving its studio space as the current building undergoes extensive refurbishment. The Co Directors and trustees have undertaken a thorough review of suitable options and propose a move to Kentish Town Community Centre, once details are agreed.

Structure, Governance and Management

The New Art Studio is a registered charity (CIO) in England and all operations and contracts are in this name and its governing document is the Constitution approved on 17th November 2020. There have been no changes to the Trustees in this period. Trustees, together with the Co Directors, hold management meetings each half-term and additionally have two Trustees meetings per year.

The Co-Directors, who are qualified Art Psychotherapists, have monthly clinical supervision with an experienced professional. In term, they provide supervision to the volunteer.

Trustees are unpaid volunteers who perform administrative duties for this small charity such as accounts and policy writing. Trustees do not receive expenses for attending meetings or for performing functions for the studio. They may be reimbursed in some circumstances if a Trustee were to pay for an item of running costs when unable to use the NAS bank account.

Trustees are continuing to improve the management systems and added financial management and Serious Incident Reporting policy. The Safeguarding policy is updated twice a year; the next review is due in January 2025. There is a safeguarding standing agenda item for each management committee meeting, which has utmost priority, given our service is involved in the care of vulnerable adults.

Trustees are aware that funding is the main ongoing issue for the Studio and we are pleased to report that we have been awarded multi -year grants which provide a partial income for the next two years. In our decision making the Trustees have ensured that in its financial management, the activities it undertakes and contracts entered into, the Studio is not exposed to liabilities it cannot meet.

Accounting policies

2.2 INCOME

This standard list of accounting policies has been applied by the charity except for those ticked "No" or "N/a". Where a different or additional policy has been adopted then this is detailed in the box below.

Recognition of income	These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when: - the charity becomes entitled to the resources; - it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and - the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.	<table> <tr><td>Yes</td><td>No</td><td>N/a</td></tr> <tr><td>☒</td><td>☒</td><td>☒</td></tr> </table>	Yes	No	N/a	☒	☒	☒

Please note that Fair Value in this context is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction. For traded securities, the fair value is the value of the security quoted on the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List or equivalent. For other assets where there is no market price on a traded market, it is the trustees' or valuers' best estimate of fair value.

Set out on pages

SOFA, Balance sheets and associated notes on the reporting template as presented to the trustees and filed with the charity commission

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 July 2024

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
