The Alexander Technique Congress Association

Annual Report 2023

The Alexander Technique Congress Association (ATCA) is pleased to report that following the successful International Congress of the F. M. Alexander Technique in Berlin, Germany, a further £23,800 has been raised. The proceedings of the Berlin Congress (i.e. the congress papers), was made available for purchase as a print-on-demand paperback in March 2023. It is intended that they will also be available as a downloadable PDF on ATCA's own website. The development of ATCA's website has however been delayed several times and is not expected to go live until 2024. The selection process of suitable directors for the next congress (Dublin, Ireland, in August 2025) was finalised, and the new directors are progressing according to schedule and in accordance with the original timeline agreed upon for project completion. ATCA has also provided funding for the 2025 Dublin Congress.

Trustees:
Jamie McDowell, Carol Prentice, Lolita Brinkley, Lucia Walker.
