Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees
For the year ended 31 August 2025

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, with the seeking of explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention, which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To solicit and collect donations to aid the training of psychotherapists in India.

To use funds to subsidise the fees and travel costs of psychotherapy trainers delivering psychotherapy training in India, in person and online.

To organize events to raise funds and publicise the work of this CIO.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

We (Group Analysis India) has been supporting the funding of the delivery of 'group analytic psychotherapy' training to participants in India.

In total, 20 students (2 years) have completed the formal part of the training, and need to write their final papers in order to receive the award from the London IGA, 'Qualified Group Analyst (International)'

At the end of the next year (July 2026) another 10 students will complete.

In addition, in July 2026, the current Intermediate Year students will have fulfilled requirements for their diploma. However, they are interested in exploring the possibility of completing the full training.

At the end of the year after that (July 2027) the final cohort of 7 students will have completed the formal part of their training.

We have 9 staff delivering the training.

It is all taking place via zoom.

Our residential was convened in Nepal in February 2025

Next year's residential will be in Bengaluru February 2026

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

We will start to wind down the training and charity in August 2027.

By this stage about 37 graduates will be in a position to start their own trainings in India if they should choose to.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The primary function of the charity is to raise funds in order to use the funds to support the training of psychotherapists in India.

The charity has been successful in raising sufficient funds to support the training.

We raised about £60,000 this year from a mix of donations and fees

Donations have been collected through a number of different ways.

Approached organizations for donations

Approached individuals for one off donations

Approached individuals for regular monthly or annual donations

Fees from students

Invited attendees of four on-line Zoom lectures to make donations

A well wisher from the USA has donated us £15,000 and has committed to donating the same amount each year.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We have achieved our aim of having sufficient funds in hand for one year's expenses

Details of any funds materially in deficit

none

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

See section D

The Charity itself has no expenses.

The Charity functions as a kind of conduit – collecting funds and using them to cover the costs of the training.

Section F Other optional information

Hand in hand with the increasing number of students completing the training, our revenue will fall because of a decrease in fees. We will need to keep an eye on our finances and try to fund raise accordingly.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Signed on behalf of the charity's trustees
