How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	According to skill and experience requirements

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Trust has not yet established its area of specialism and therefore its web site is held in draft status.

The Trust has begun to explore working more closely in the agenda for special educational needs.

The charity was established to provide

Relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship, or other disadvantage, anywhere in the world, through the provision of grants to support those who are socially and economically disadvantaged

The trustees believe that the area of fucus should be more explicit without ruling out the broader dimensions of need.

Risk and engagement procedure policies are in place and these will be reviewed as soon as the trust steps beyond the point of publishing its interests through its website.

Whilst the potential to help in educational special needs is explored the Charity has continued to offer small grants to help educational needs.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The principal objects of the Trust are

The relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship, or other disadvantage, anywhere in the world, through the provision of grants to support those who are socially and economically disadvantaged.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

With continuing regard for the Charities Commission guidance on public benefit the Trust is testing avenues and types of support that may be offered under the terms of our constitution.

The Trust continues to work closely with the Tariro Trust (A UK charity) that provides broad familial support for young people who for one reason or another have lost that support.

The Tariro model is something that the trustees have especially in mind when seeking to help young people in the UK.

Support has also been given to individual starting new businesses oer with small business challenges since these challenges play to the skills and experience of the Trustees.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about: • policy on grantmaking; • policy programme related investment; • contribution made by volunteers.	No comments here at this early stage of the charity.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Trust still seeks to define where it could most provide help. Inevitably the Trust feels that the time is still focussed upon dialogue about direction rather than in growing its funding base and its charitable opportunities.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Our immediate constraint is to ensure that we do not over promise or over fund.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity.
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
