The selection of Trustees is based upon the regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

The organisation has a policy of building substantial reserves to contribute the maximum amount possible towards ALK+ research.

The objects of the Organisation, as set out in its governing document are as follows: To protect and promote the health of the public through supporting research into the nature, causes, diagnosis, prevention, treatment and cure of anaplastic lymphoma kinase positive (or ALK+, non-small cell lung cancer).

The Trustees have considered the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission, and have taken due regard of that guidance and is satisfied that the charity's activities will provide public benefit in the future.

During 2023/4 the Trustees' are finding the best routes for the funds raised to be used for research into ALK+.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Research ALK+ UK

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023 which are set out on pages 3 to 4.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
