FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 1 July 2023 To 30 June 2024

Charity name: CANTUS FIRMUS TRUST

Charity registration number: 1192862

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The object of the CIO is the advancement of the Christian faith including, but not limited to, the development of understanding, worship and mission • for the benefit of individual Christians, groups of Christians, practitioners, enquirers and learners • by means of the creative arts – including, but not limited to, demonstrations of and opportunities to participate in high quality music, dance and drama – together with associated education and training, and to support such education and training by the provision of materials and the making of grants • in locations throughout the United Kingdom, but principally in the counties of Essex and Suffolk.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Most Cantus Firmus activities are in-person events and services. During the Covid pandemic lockdowns, the Trust created video resources for churches and other organisations to use in their worship, and it maintains the capability to create more in the future. Most Cantus Firmus events and services are in partnership with local churches. Some of those events and services are to present Christian music and understanding to people who would not usually hear them. Some others are to help introduce congregations (and other people) to musical (and other artistic) styles and materials that they are not familiar with and want to consider using. Some Cantus Firmus events are in partnership with InHarmony, a small organisation at St Edmundsbury Cathedral to develop music across churches in Suffolk. Also, some Cantus Firmus events are in partnership with the Royal School of Church Music, a charity to develop music within Christian worship across the UK and elsewhere.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees continue to ensure that they have regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when carrying out activities to which it is relevant.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Cantus Firmus Trust has a practice of making donations to individuals who have been heavily involved in preparing and presenting events and activities. The Artistic Director (who is not a trustee) makes proposals to the trustees on the amount of such donations and the trustees take these proposals into account when making a decision. A trustee is able to propose to the other trustees a donation to a person, who may or may not be already known to the trustees, who is undertaking study or other activity which is consistent with the objects of Cantus Firmus Trust and who is in need of financial support, and the trustees believe that such study or activity will generally advance those objects. Any such donation is at the trustees' absolute discretion and they will take into account the circumstances of the case and the amount of funding which Cantus Firmus Trust has available. A trustee may also propose a donation to an organisation whose aims are consistent with those of Cantus Firmus Trust; a similar set of decision criteria will apply as noted above in relation to an individual.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	Not applicable.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	The Trust relies very heavily on, and is very grateful for, the contribution of volunteers both for administration, singing, accompanying, other performing, arranging and conducting music.
Other		During the reporting period, the trustees met in October 2024, January 2024 and May 2024. There was no Annual General Meeting of the CIO in this reporting period: the 2023 AGM was in June 2023 and the 2024 AGM was in July 2024..

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During 2023-24, Cantus Firmus provided choirs and musical leadership for services and events at churches who had asked for help exploring and navigating new ways forward for their music (choice of material and development of music teams). These included a harvest service at Prettygate Baptist Church Colchester (which attracted new people to the church), a Celtic Christianity themed service at Colchester Baptist Church and a climate change themed concert at St Andrew's Church Rushmere. Cantus Firmus ran one Pilgrimage of Song this year (from villages to a large housing estate in Ipswich), in the format created and used by the Trust. "Singing pilgrims" spend a day walking between churches, with short themed musical services at each – experiencing aspects of pilgrimage and the effectiveness of services using well chosen, simple music and liturgy. Cantus Firmus provided a large choir and orchestra for a performance of Messy Messiah in St Edmundsbury Cathedral in November 2023. Messy Messiah is a portfolio of material developed by Cantus Firmus to introduce school students to the biblical Christmas story and give them an experience of large-scale, immersive music. It adapts Handel's Messiah with children's parts, performance scripts, opportunities for other arts and school assembly material and is intended for further use in the future. The cathedral drew in c150 students from c8 local primary schools and the audience filled the cathedral. In February 2024, Cantus Firmus led a workshop and service at St Edmundsbury Cathedral., to explain and demonstrate Taizé music in worship, Nearly 200 people from across Suffolk and beyond participated, including ministers and church members, with the intention of introducing Taizé worship into their own churches. A composition prize, funded by Cantus Firmus, was awarded to a promising student at London School of Theology, who plans to work in church music leadership after graduating. The trust's events and activities are advertised widely to over 500 mailing list subscribers, to churches and to the general public. They are also regularly mentioned on BBC Radio Suffolk. All are welcome to attend and take part.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Accounts are maintained on a 'Receipts and Payments' basis. Donations from supporters of £823 were received for general purposes, along with participant donations to defray the costs of events of £4406. The charity is registered with HMRC for Gift Aid and claims were made on qualifying donations. Other income derives from organisations with whom we may partner when presenting an event. The total income was £9449. Expenditure of £9494 was incurred, which included £2080 of administrative support. The year-end balance was £11220, of which £926 is in restricted funds. There was a deficit for the year of £45. (The full summary of the accounts is provided in the accompanying document.)
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Cantus Firmus Trust holds reserves for the following purposes: 1 Maintenance of essential activities 2 Risk of project losses 3 Take up of opportunities 4 Exceptional activities The trustees review this policy annually. They also decide on the appropriate level of reserves on a year-by-year basis, consistent with the above purposes, and consistent with the main risks and opportunities identified for the Trust.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£9000 at start of year £6993 at end of year
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Not applicable
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	No fund is in deficit
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	No uncertainties with regard to the charity continuing as a going concern.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)		supporters. Some income results from Gift Aid claims to HMRC.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	Not applicable
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The three principal areas of risk identified in the Trust's work are: 1. Financial: expenditure (most likely on projects) may exceed income; new opportunities may arise at short notice that can only be taken up with additional funding; assets may need replacing early because of faults. 2. Safety: the Trust's live events have inevitable safety hazards (e.g. tripping hazards in staged productions and services, road hazards in outdoor pilgrimages of song) which need to be assessed and mitigated. 3. Safeguarding: the Trust does not work with adults at risk. Some projects do involve under 18s; in nearly all cases the involvement is via a school or church, in which case the school or church supervises them, but on rare occasions it is necessary for the Trust to provide supervision.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	The Charity is governed by a Constitution approved by the Charity Commission when Cantus Firmus Trust CIO was approved.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g. unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO
Trustee selection methods, including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	As specified by the Constitution (and apart from the first charity trustees) every trustee is appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective governance and running of the CIO.

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	After initial, informal discussions with the chairman, a prospective trustee attends a trustees' meeting as an observer. A DBS check is carried out, if appropriate. After appointment, he or she is provided with information about the trust's policies and methods of working.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The trustees meet approximately three-monthly to make strategic and financial decisions. There are two Steering Groups, one for Essex and one for Suffolk, with at least one trustee in each, whose members propose and manage events in their respective counties. In the early stages of planning each event, the steering groups prepare, for the trustees' consideration and approval, a budget and a summary of its structure and content, which shows how it aligns with the trust's objectives.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	The Trust has close links with: St Edmundsbury Cathedral, which employs Richard Hubbard part time (the Trust's Artistic Director) as St Edmundsbury and Ipswich Music Development Director. London School of Theology, which employed Richard Hubbard (the Trust's Artistic Director) part-time during this reporting year. Several churches in Suffolk and Essex.
