Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To enhance the development and education of children primarily under statutory school age by encouraging parents to understand and provide for the needs of their children through community groups and by:

Offering appropriate play, education and care facilities, family learning and extended hours groups, together with the right of parents to take responsibility for and become involved in the activities of such groups,

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit) ensuring that such groups offer opportunities for all children whatever their race, culture, religion, means or ability; Encouraging the study of the needs of such children and their families and promoting public interest in and recognition of such needs in the local areas; Instigating and adhering to the Statutory Framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage and furthering the aims and objectives of the Early Years Alliance.

To offer play education and care to all children and their families within the local community, having particular regard to the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements, Pre-School Learning Alliance Guidance and the guidance issued by the Charities Commission on Public Benefit.

- contribution made by volunteers.

Oldland Pre-School thanks its staff, committee, parents and other volunteers who give up their time to assist at fundraising events in order to help maintain and improve the premises and purchase new equipment for the benefit of the children.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have achieved an OFSTED rating of “Good” in the inspection that took place in September 2023. “Children confidently talk to their friends and visitors. Staff read the children stories and sing familiar nursery rhymes to support their communication skills. At circle time, children talk in large groups and can retell the key moments of a story.”, Ofsted Report 2023.

Our SENCo acknowledges the hard work and dedication of staff, volunteers and external professionals to ensure the needs of all children are met. We pride ourselves on our inclusiveness and ability to offer our services to all children, whatever their needs.

We continue to fundraise to update our terrapin buildings through local fundraising activities and with help from the local community we were able to update the heating system, make improvements to the rooms and refresh the resources available to children.

All staff demonstrate a willingness to keep updated by attending and completing regular meetings and courses.

Section E

Financial review

I have examined the attached financial statements.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner:

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of accounts. It is my responsibility to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report:

My examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the organisation and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

This report is made to you in accordance with the terms of my engagement and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the trustees, for my work of for this report.

Independent examiner's statement:

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - a) to keep accounting records, and
 - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting recordshave not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
