Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In the past year, [since January 2022 until 31 December 2022] the main achievements of the Coalition for Genocide Response (CGR) included the following: - CGR curated and organised several webinars and events on genocide, raising awareness of situations of genocide or of the serious risk of genocide globally and legal responses available; - CGR produced briefings on legislative developments informing about their legal consequences in line with international law. The work of CGR helped to achieve the following goals: - Improve awareness of the dire situation of the Yazidis, Rohingyas, Uyghurs, Tigrayans and others in relation to violations of their rights under international law; - Improve the understanding of current challenges to the implementation of the duty to prevent under Article I of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide; - Work towards changes in States' approaches to genocide and other atrocity crimes in line with international applicable norms and

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	The trustees are satisfied that the work of CGR has been in accordance with its constitution and aim and objectives. Its achievements have been impactful, reached those who have an obligation to uphold international law and has been beneficial directly and indirectly to intended beneficiaries. Some of its work will have long term consequences which are not immediately foreseeable.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	CGR is a lean and small organisation relying on largely volunteers. The charity would, of course, like to raise more funds to help facilitate this work and, at the last trustees meeting [21 September 2023], discussed this and how a sustainable fundraising model may be built.

Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	N/A

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	During this year, the balance on the unrestricted fund on 31 December 2022 (financial year end) was £659.04. CGR has no significant fixed assets.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	CGR has not held any reserves in the last financial year period as there were no outgoing expenses/expenditures. Only very small administrative expenditures were incurred.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	0
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	As the work of the CGR to date has been undertaken almost exclusively on a volunteer basis and there are no uncertain expenditures, reserves are not deemed necessary. The trustees continue to assess this policy.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	N/A

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity largely operates on the goodwill and offices of its trustees and volunteers, as such it has a very small financial footprint. The other funds for the operational expenses come from one-off donations from private donors or philanthropists. A general fundraising was organised once by a trustee via the crowdfunding platform GoFundMe. Furthermore, CGR now has a PayPal account that allows for donations from the general public.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	N/A

A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Potential risk 1 Possibility of a State or state-supported repression of human rights defenders working on genocide in certain regions. Mitigation 1: Exercising caution, and discretion at all times to minimise any possible risk of retaliation on the part of the state. Mitigation 2: Operating on a ‘do no harm’ principle so as to gauge and assess any possible risk. Mitigation 3: Monitoring risks to human rights defenders working in the regions or working on specific cases and identifying available steps to mitigate the risks. Potential risk 2 An inherent risk of re-traumatisation due to the type of human rights work the charity undertakes. Mitigation: Sensitive and professional methods of dealing with survivors, including, adopting the Murad Code for dealing with victims of conflict-related sexual violence.
Other		(a) CGR does not give any guarantees; (b) CGR does not have any outstanding debts.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Charity Constitution (Trust Deed)
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	CIO
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	According to Para.10 of the Constitution, '(a) Apart from the first charity trustees, every appointed trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. (b) In selecting individuals for appointment as appointed charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.'

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	According to Para. 11 of the Constitution, '11. Information for new charity trustees The charity trustees will make available to each new charity trustee, on or before his or her first appointment: (a) a copy of the current version of this constitution; and (b) a copy of the CIO's latest Trustees' Annual Report and statement of accounts.' Furthermore, trustees are individuals with knowledge and expertise in the area of work of the CGR. Trustees are encouraged and actively attend lectures, conferences and events that relate to human rights issues, charity governance, and in particular, genocide and atrocity crimes, to be kept informed of the work of the charity.

The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The internal structure of staff members is flat and non-hierarchical. This is to enable proper and comprehensive discussions, critique, and cooperation. All members are updated about the work and given the opportunity to share concerns and contribute with expertise. CGR works with experts, research centres, national and international NGOs and other bodies. CGR also works with victims and survivors of human rights violations. CGR works with local partners to ensure the exchange of accurate information, verification of information and ensure a complementary approach to its work.
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	CGR is fully independent of any organisation or political party or institution. CGR has formed informal cooperation with various organisations for the purposes of webinars and briefings.
