Objectives and activities
The charity objects of the CIO are for the public benefit to relieve the needs of amputees or people with limb impairments and their families/carers ("the beneficiaries") through the provision of an holistic peer to peer support service designed to meet the social, emotional and practical needs of beneficiaries offering advice and information on matters including, but not limited to, coming to terms with limb loss or impairment, stump health, pain management, healthy and active lifestyles and home adaptions; a signposting service directing beneficiaries to appropriate sources of specialist advice and information relating to, but without limitation, legal matters, accessing welfare benefits, physical therapy and education/retraining.

Mr Hasan Qamruddin

Independent examiners report to the trustees of Amputee and Trauma Support Group UK CIO for the year ended 31 March 2022

I report on the accounts of the charity, which are set out on pages 6 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report
My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement
In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

   - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

   have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
