Contribution made by volunteers	During the period of 2023/2024, the sewing groups have been hard at work crafting items made from wool, fabric and textiles to benefit multiple charities, as outlined above. We are incredibly grateful for their time and expertise in making the items, and the charities that have received the items are grateful for their contributions. During the year 2023-2024 our volunteers made thousands of items for charity, however our form responses are not complete (something we wish to change for 2024-2025 and logged items totalled 1043. Bags given to WOMens aid following the closure of Baby Aid Birmingham. Previously the items were given in carrier bags or binliners which would rip due to the weight of the items. Each item was made from upcycled and salvaged clothing, bedding and donated fabric and made by volunteers who donated their time for free. Sew Marvellous provided the sewing group with labels, storage of fabrics and provided wool, knitting needles and crochet hooks to the volunteers. We also helped to spread the word by writing and sharing social media posts, displaying the projects and contacting charities directly to verify project status, credibility and quantity of items needed. We also arrange delivery of the items made through a network of volunteers.

As such, we do not have any major sources of funds with the exception of a few donations made by individuals wanting to support our cause which we use for purchasing labels and materials where needed, the majority of the items owned by the charity are fabrics donated by other organisations or by individuals.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	We do not invest money at present
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Since lockdown ended, there has been a decline in the number of people actively volunteering to make items for charity, however we are looking at ways to engage the crafting community, including repair workshops, crafternoons, evening sewing groups and more in the coming year.
