TRUSTEES REPORT FOR YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2023

After an initial resurgence of enthusiasm, the year ended very little being done and a very small income.

See detailed accounts attached.

Total income received – almost entirely from Church of Christ – was £883.41.

Spent on Just Giving subscription	£180
Other expenses	£ nil
Sent to PVI via Stewardship	£650

Opening balance 1 January 2023	£ 1359.12
Closing balance 31 December 2023	£ 1412.53

In July, the name of the charity was changed from Unsung Heroes to Pro-Vision International UK. (Henceforward PVI or PVI UK) This was done in order to reflect our true intentions which are to raise money for the operations of PVI in Southern Africa. It was felt that donors would be understandably confused if we, as a UK based charity, asked for funds for Unsung Heroes but presented the work of PVI in South Africa.

The name Unsung Heroes was chosen on the advice of the solicitors who acted on our behalf in registering us as a CIO. Their concern was that the Charities Commission wants to be certain that control of PVI UK was not controlled by an overseas entity. As Trustees of PVI UK, we are solely responsible for the management of the CIO.

Jack worked with Warwick Greville to update and change the PVI UK website. Vicky provided useful criticism in order to make certain that everything shown on the website was accurate and truthful.

Damon Greville and Ted Carr provided some comment. The website has however, been singularly unsuccessful in raising any money. We paid £18 per month for a subscription to Just Giving with no result other than a "test" donation of £20. To be fair, apart from the use of a "Donate" button, we did not exploit the opportunity. The subscription was cancelled at end November.

A Directory of Grant Making Trusts was purchased from DSC. Hundreds of grant making charities are listed together with their area of interest and other info. Vicky worked through the 800 odd pages and crossed out those which only support local UK charities.

Some charities require submission on their own forms which is very slow going. Others allow direct submission to a postal address. Some allow email submission.

Due to a change in her personal circumstances and the illness of her husband Jonny, Vicky is unable to do the fundraising work initially promised.

Jack has prepared a 3 page "bid letter" and is posting them out with Stamped addressed return envelopes as time allows.
