Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	CIO-Foundation registered 03 March 2021
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointment of charity trustees 1. Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of two years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. 2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are

“For the public benefit, the relief of need and the preservation and protection of mental health of people in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq (KRI), in particular (but without limitation) by working to improve mental health provision in KRI for targeted populations, primarily through schools, including by working in partnerships to develop and deliver high quality training for social workers and others who work with school age children directed to better equipping them to deal with those suffering from mental health issues in a part of the world that has experienced traumatic events.”

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Charity Commission requires the trustees of a charity to:

- Select suitable accounting policies, apply them consistently;
- Make judgement and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless there is a reason to believe that the charity will not continue for the foreseeable future.

The trustees are responsible for the keeping of proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charity Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence to take reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity was able to partner with Oxford Health NHS Trust to deliver mental health training to trainees in Kurdistan on cognitive behavioural therapy.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity doesn't have reserve policy, this will be reviewed in the future.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
