Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The above activities have yielded and are still yielding positive fruit of changed lives; beneficiaries testifying of how they have been impacted by them. Those who were emotionally broken and depressed coming out of depression and being taught how to be free and remain free from them. The hopeless have received hope and realising they have something to live for. What we have achieved and planning for more on a larger scale include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Empowering beneficiaries to dream dreams, unlocking everyone's potential. • Inspiring those with no future ambition to envision ambitious futures. • Helping them to develop the confidence, creativity and determination they need to thrive in a changing and challenging world. • We also do aim to fill idle minds (especially the young people) with dreams and aspirations. There is a saying that idle mind is a devil's workshop. When an idle mind is engaged and occupied, the likelihood of unwholesome creativity is immensely reduced. If young minds are occupied with dreams and aspirations, they would not join gangs, crime would be largely reduced. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> We are helping and giving hope to the disenchanted and demoralised in our modern society and motivating them to dream again. We are seeking to create unforgettable moments of inspiration that can have a lasting impact on these lives.
