Charity name: The Yeheb Project

Charity registration number: 1193782

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the charity are: - To promote the conservation, protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment for the public benefit; and - To relieve poverty, in particular but not exclusively by supporting the restoration of degraded land through the conservation and sustainable use of indigenous plant species; and - To advance the education of the public in the subjects of sustainable development and conservation, in particular but not exclusively by the undertaking and dissemination of research. Sustainable development means "development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs."
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity's focus in the period was on the first and third objects, since circumstances in the Horn of Africa made it impossible to travel or implement projects in the field. This also limited the charity's ability to fund raise. Accordingly, the charity did not trade in the year. The main activities undertaken were to add information and educational content to the charity's website; maintain links with contacts in the Horn of Africa; and research potential sources of grant funding.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.
