Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
--	----------------	--

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The performance tour of "Unlocked" May-June 2023 was a huge success. With 3 generous sponsors, we were able to cover our costs to the penny! The tour had several 5* reviews, won the award for Best Newcomer at Brighton Fringe Festival, and was a finalist for an Offie Award. Dance students in Kenya benefitted from donations towards their training so that better teachers can be provided for them and the opportunity to develop dance technique and creative skills as well as social support through the program at Art of Music Foundation Kenya/Ghetto Classics Kenya. Rachael was able to make a music video with her girls with the money we raised and sent. This music video raised awareness of the treatment of girls in their community. 'Unlocked' at Whitton Baptist Church was also a huge success with outstanding feedback from the audience. The team worked extremely well together and benefitted from being part of the team. The audience were once again touched by the production and benefitted from the excuse to be brought together.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Fundraising, donations, ticket sales and workshop fees have been the sources of funding for the charity. The charity received £2000 from the Hillier Trust and £2000 from Richard Nevard towards the tour of 'Unlocked'. The charity received 3 loans from Rosanna Nevard (Trustee), Melanie Cox and Karen Hill to pay for up-front costs of the tour. These were all repaid to the loaners.
--	-----------	---

		The charity also received income from ticket sales, donations for merchandise and teaching workshops, which all covered the costs of putting on the tour. The charity was also funded £2640.22 from Whitton Baptist Church as per the budget for putting on the production in their venue. Other fundraising events (Dance-a-thon) money raised was all sent to the planned recipients.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	N/a
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Risks of fundraising events costing more to put on, than actually raising. Risk of paying up-front costs for the tour and then not selling enough tickets to cover the costs.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The performance "Life out of Lockdown" was very successful in raising money for Art of Music Foundation/Ghetto Classics Kenya. It also benefitted the young dancers taking part in the performance by giving them an opportunity to work with professional dancers and be together on stage again following lockdown. The audience also benefitted by having the opportunity to reflect on their lockdown experiences and it reunited the community following lockdown. There was a positive vibe of celebration amongst all involved, which brought people confidence to put lockdown behind them and look to the future. Dance students in Kenya benefitted from donations towards their training so that better teachers can be provided for them and the opportunity to develop dance technique and creative skills as well as social support through the program at Art of Music Foundation Kenya/Ghetto Classics Kenya.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The children and young people taking part in dance activities in Nigeria, Kenya, Uganda and India have hugely benefitted from receiving donations of dancewear – it makes their practise safer and more engaging. They are made to feel like a unique and valued member of their activity group. School children benefitted from dance workshops engaging with the Christmas and Easter stories. They learned the true meaning of these Christian festivals, as well as benefitting from the health and wellbeing elements of dance. The performance project was given as a free, outdoor performance to the public and spoke to people through dance about social stereotypes and challenged people to rethink their views.
