Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	This is our 3rd year of operation. The structure and processes put in place to ensure accountability and responsibility towards our charitable purposes are more established. The charity still continues with thirty- one eight which has provided resources and training materials for our trustees and volunteers and also supervises our safeguarding and CRB registrations for our volunteers and trustees We have ensured the provision of teachings on the bible which have enabled our members and the community that joins us to live and communicate within a Christian ethos. We still continue to hold our meetings three times a week and on Sundays so we can support our members. We also organised weekly sessions for the young adults which is now thriving and many youths have benefitted from the sessions.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Saving Grace Worship Centre

AOA Accounting Services Ltd report on the accounts of Saving Grace Worship Centre for the financial year ended 2023/24, which have been prepared on the Receipts and Payments / Accruals basis.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The trustees of the charity are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Act, and that an independent examination is needed.

As an independent examiner, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts in accordance with section 145 of the Charities Act 2011;
- Follow the procedures set out in the Charity Commission guidance CC32;
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

I have examined the accounting records kept by the charity and compared the accounts presented with those records. I have also considered any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and sought explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. My examination was limited to the procedures required under the Charities Act 2011 and did not include a full audit.

Independent Examiner's Statement

Based on my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. The accounts have not been properly prepared in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act 2011;
2. The accounts do not agree with the underlying accounting records;
3. The charity has not met its responsibilities under the Act with regard to maintaining adequate accounting records.

During the financial year, total donations received amounted to £33,828, compared to £21,793 in the previous year. This increase was primarily due to a one-off donation of £11,919 received during the year.

Expenditure on charitable activities totalled £22,191, up from £17,520 in the previous year, reflecting the charity's ongoing commitment to delivering its objectives.
