1. The relief of those in need, by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardships or other social or economic disadvantage by providing such items and assistance as the trustees deem fit, such as the provision of care and food packages.
2. To develop the capacity and skills of the members of the (socially and economically) disadvantaged community in and around the environs of Kellits, Clarendon, Jamaica, through education and training in such a way that they are better able to identify, and help meet their needs to participate more fully in society.

3. To advance education by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities (not required to be provided by the local education authority) for education, including for example awarding of scholarships to a university, college or institution of higher or further education or adult education and training.
