ANNUAL REPORT

FINANCIAL YEAR 2023

It's was a highly impactful year. At the DODM Virtual book club, more children books e.g The Lord's Prayer, A-Z of Praise, My Lunch Box etc have been written been written by the charity lead, Olubusola Ajayi, as well as exclusive educative magazines. The DODM Virtual Book Club continues to promote reading across all age sets.To encourage reading, the DODM Virtual Book Club started the BOOK OF THE WEEK. This highlights a book for the week to the reading community. In addition to this, the Read A Book A Week Challenge was introduced to encourage and stimulate reading across all age sets.

The Readers and Writers (RAW) Conference also held in July 2023 with the theme, "The Reader, The Writer, and Nation Building". The RAW Conference also educates its participants as well as the community through its outreaches on the health benefits of reading with emphasis on leisure reading, and healthy reading. The RAW Conference Community Impact Award was also award to a member of the Holbeach, Lincolnshire Community for over three decades selfless impact to the early years learning in the community.This conference is usually followed by the post conference outreaches to the community.

MOVIES

One of our movies, titled "The Pressed", a story centered around the christian faith and depression won two awards at the UKCDMA London Region Film Festival in the year 2023. The low budget film was written, produced, directed and edited by the charity lead, Olubusola Ajayi.

MUSIC

The Atmosphere of Glory is a music outreach that brings together the community, diverse race or ethnic group under an atmosphere of worship and praise via music. The Atmosphere of Glory has provided a relaxing atmosphere for people in the community either as a physical event or online. The Atmosphere of Glory held in Loughborough and Lincolnshire in the year 2023. It was a highly impactful event. The Atmosphere of Glory Community Impact Award also recognised individuals who have made positive contributions to the Leicestershire and Lincolnshire communities.The awards were personally funded by charity lead, Olubusola Ajayi.

ANNUAL REPORT

FINANCIAL YEAR 2023

HYMNAL FRIDAY

The hymnal Friday was set up to bring alive, appreciate, create more awareness and recognise the works of British hymn writers, as well as other nationals who have composed or written great hymns. Most people sing hymns without even knowing about the authors, and some of this hymns came by inspiration of life experiences of some of the authors. Hymnal Friday has been largely impactful so far. It runs every week online.

The WRAP Conference, now a bi-annual conference held a yearly conference. It brought together an online community of christian delivers for a time of worship, listening to the word of God and a time of prayer. E-books centered around the christian faith were distributed

MUSIC OUTREACH

The Atmosphere of Glory is the music outreach arm of the Descendants of David Ministries, and it brings together diverse communities, ethnic groups, race, tribe or tongue under an atmosphere of worship and praise via music. In addition to this, there is also the Atmosphere of Glory Special Yoruba Edition in which the language of expression is solely in Yoruba language, and this holds quarterly online.

The Atmosphere of Glory (English)/main Edition) held in Birmingham in the year 2022 with positive community turnout and interactions, fellowship under an atmosphere of worship and praise via music. The music outreach has been a good avenue to promote unity and interactions within the community.

HYMNAL FRIDAY

The Hymnal Friday is a weekly edition showcasing and enlightening the public about the brief history and works of British hymn writers, as well as other nationals. This way, although many of them have long departed, their works are kept alive and brings fresh memories to the listeners or readers.

DODM VIRTUAL BOOK CLUB

As part of our objectives to promote the reading culture in England, there is a weekly newsletter with important information on books, methods of readings, how to embrace the reading culture, the health benefits of reading etc sent out to our virtual reading community. Encouraging our virtual reading community to read from our collections and showcasing the works of other authors with their consent.

READ A BOOK A WEEK CHALLENGE

We encourage our virtual reading community to read a book a week either from our own collection (Descendants of David Ministries (DODM) Books) or books from other authors. This has been largely successful in encouraging or developing the reading culture in our virtually subscribed free reading community.

NEW BOOKS

Books such as Hadassah, Diamond without Scars and other collections written and illustrated by Olubusola Ajayi were added to our collections. These are books for youths and children to encourage the reading culture amongst those age sets, and they are available for free to our virtual reading community.

ANNUAL REPORT

FINANCIAL YEAR 2022

MOVIE/BOOK

A short faith based movie "The Cab" written and produced by Olubusola Ajayi for the charity was also converted to a book to address the subject of peer pressure amongst the youth. It is available for free download.

READERS AND WRITERS(RAW) CONFERENCE

This is a very impactful virtual conference with theme "Preparing the Next Generation of Readers and Writers". This brought together various stakeholders with very impactful sessions.

POST CONFERENCE OUTREACH

This is a follow up on the information received and lessons learnt from the RAW CONFERENCE to take it further to impact the community.

POST CONFERENCE OUTREACH (COMMUNITY OUTREACH)

Holbeach Community visit/Interview on promoting the reading culture looking back at how the reading culture has changed over the decade, the key influencing factors etc.

MAGAZINE EXCLUSIVES

As an outflow of the Readers and Writers Conference, and to reach out to the community, the following magazine exclusives were put together the the lead, design and editorial team, descendants of David ministries, Olubusola Ajayi.
