FINANCIAL YEAR 2022

MUSIC OUTREACH

The Atmosphere of Glory is the music outreach arm of the Descendants of David Ministries, and it brings together diverse communities, ethnic groups, race, tribe or tongue under an atmosphere of worship and praise via music. In addition to this, there is also the Atmosphere of Glory Special Yoruba Edition in which the language of expression is solely in Yoruba language, and this holds quarterly online.

The Atmosphere of Glory (English)/main Edition) held in Birmingham in the year 2022 with positive community turnout and interactions, fellowship under an atmosphere of worship and praise via music. The music outreach has been a good avenue to promote unity and interactions within the community.

HYMNAL FRIDAY

The Hymnal Friday is a weekly edition showcasing and enlightening the public about the brief history and works of British hymn writers, as well as other nationals. This way, although many of them have long departed, their works are kept alive and brings fresh memories to the listeners or readers.

DODM VIRTUAL BOOK CLUB

As part of our objectives to promote the reading culture in England, there is a weekly newsletter with important information on books, methods of readings, how to embrace the reading culture, the health benefits of reading etc sent out to our virtual reading community. Encouraging our virtual reading community to read from our collections and showcasing the works of other authors with their consent.

READ A BOOK A WEEK CHALLENGE

We encourage our virtual reading community to read a book a week either from our own collection (Descendants of David Ministries (DODM) Books) or books from other authors. This has been largely successful in encouraging or developing the reading culture in our virtually subscribed free reading community.

NEW BOOKS

Books such as Hadassah, Diamond without Scars and other collections written and illustrated by Olubusola Ajayi were added to our collections. These are books for youths and children to encourage the reading culture amongst those age sets, and they are available for free to our virtual reading community.
