Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are:

- To educate the public in matters pertaining to animal welfare in general and the prevention of cruelty, mistreatment and suffering among animals; and
- To promote humane behaviour towards animals by providing appropriate care, protection, treatment and security for animals which are in need of care and attention by reason of sickness, maltreatment, poor circumstances or ill usage.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Ground work has been done during the year for the Charity's operations. This has included research into website models, outreach mechanisms, as well as a consideration of various animal charities near the charity's area of operation. Additional considerations around cost of living crisis, rising inflation and limited funding availability have also been considered.

As part of all of these activities, the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit, and have adhered to them wherever relevant.

Section D
