Objects, activities and performance

Purposes

The Charity's purposes are two-fold:

(i) To advance the education of students facing disadvantage attending the London Interdisciplinary School in such ways as the charity trustees think fit (including by awarding bursaries, scholarships, maintenance allowances or grants) and

(ii) to advance the education of the public in approaches to and the importance of interdisciplinary learning.

Summary of main activities

The Foundation continues to provide grants to students facing disadvantage including students from low-income households and students estranged from their parents/carers.

Statement of Charity Commission guidance on public benefit

The charities' trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Summary of main achievements

The LIS Foundation continues to support student beneficiaries. The Foundation has been pleased to maintain, and where relevant, increase support to students facing significant disadvantage.

In 2023-24, the Foundation provided bursaries to a significant number of students studying at the

THIS LIS FOUNDATION

London Interdisciplinary School.

These bursaries were awarded for students from a variety of backgrounds including students estranged from their parents, from low-income households and students facing urgent financial difficulties.

The Foundation has a set of robust criteria for awarding bursaries on the grounds of need. Trustees review and amend criteria on an annual basis whilst taking into account the charity's financial resources.

Reserves Statement

The Charity holds reserves equivalent to at least a year's expenditure on bursaries not including funding received by foundations for specific students.

Going concern

There are no uncertainties about the LIS Foundation continuing as a going concern.

Chair's Report

The Foundation's third year has been highly fruitful.

The Foundation continues to make an impact on its beneficiaries. This is evidenced through the high rate of continuation rates of beneficiary students. Put simply, bursaries have been crucial in enabling students to continue and complete their studies. In September 2024, the first group of graduates from the pioneering founding cohort of undergraduates completed their studies.

This was a moment of great celebration and reflection both on the value of LIS's distinctive model of higher education and the important support offered by the LIS Foundation.

We look forward to seeing what impact these graduates will have in their future careers. For the Foundation, we have exciting and innovative plans to provide transitional support for our graduates from less advantaged backgrounds as they progress to their first professional roles.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required by law to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the Charity.

In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to:

THIS LIS FOUNDATION

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- state whether the applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its work.

The trustees are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the Charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 / Charities Act 2031, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the charity's constitution.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities, this report was approved by the Board of Trustees on 28/05/2025

Chair's Report

The Foundation's second year has seen a number of highlights.

Our committed group of Trustees continue to provide support and counsel to the charity.

The Foundation has made a clear impact on its beneficiaries with the impact being seen most obviously in the high continuation rate of LIS students in general and grantees in particular.

The Trustees are aware that conditions for many students over the past year have been extremely challenging with a widely felt cost of living crisis. Our evaluation shows that an important factor in the School's impressive student continuation rate is the continued support provided by the Foundation. The year in prospect will be an important one for the London Interdisciplinary School. Most notably, the first group of undergraduate students will complete their degrees. We look forward to seeing the impact that they are able to make on the world.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required by law to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the Charity.

Ian Davenport (appointed October 2020)

Sarah Evans (appointed October 2020)

Colleen Amos (appointed October 2020)

Stephen Isherwood (appointed October 2020)

Larissa Dempsey (appointed October 2020)

Objects, activities and performance

Purposes

The Charity's purposes are two-fold:

- (i) To advance the education of students facing disadvantage attending the London Interdisciplinary School in such ways as the charity trustees think fit (including by awarding bursaries, scholarships, maintenance allowances or grants) and
- (ii) to advance the education of the public in approaches to and the importance of interdisciplinary learning.

Summary of main activities

In its first year of operation, the Foundation has provided grants to students facing disadvantage including students from low-income households and students estranged from their parents/careers.

Statement of Charity Commission guidance on public benefit

The charities' trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Summary of main achievements

The LIS Foundation has made an immediate impact supporting beneficiaries within months of its registration.

THIS LIS FOUNDATION

In this endeavour, the Foundation gratefully acknowledges the support of a range of private donors and charitable foundations.

In 2021-2, the Foundation provided bursaries to a significant number of students studying at the London Interdisciplinary School.

These bursaries were awarded for students from a variety of backgrounds including students estranged from their parents, from low income households.

The Foundation has a set of robust criteria for awarding bursaries on the grounds of need. It also uses a risk analysis process to ensure that the Foundation is aware of any potential challenges.

Financial Review

Income to 31 August 2022:	£59,003.46
Expenditure to 31 August 2022:	£20,599.33
Surplus for period:	£38,404.13

Reserves statement

The Charity holds reserves amounting approximately to a year's expenditure on bursaries not including funding received by foundations for specific students.

Amount of reserves held

£10,000

Explanation of going concern

There are no uncertainties about the LIS Foundation continuing as a going concern.

Chair's Report

The Foundation's inaugural year has seen many highlights.

We formed a group of dynamic and collaborative Trustees who, between themselves, share decades of charity and corporate experience. Their combined expertise has ensured that we were able to establish the Foundation on a sure footing and with clear policies and processes.

The founding students at the London Interdisciplinary School made a fine start in October 2021 and thanks to our generous funders, we were able to offer support to a highly deserving group of young people.

The Foundation's bursaries have had a powerful impact on individuals and helped to ensure that LIS has enjoyed a retention of over 95% - a particularly fine achievement for a new university.

As LIS grows, we look forward to supporting generations of outstanding students and advancing innovative, interdisciplinary learning.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required by law to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the Charity.

In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to:

THIS LIS FOUNDATION

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- state whether the applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue its work.

The trustees are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the Charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006 / Charities Act 2031, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the charity's constitution.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities, this report was approved by the Board of Trustees on 09/03/2023
