Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 16 June 2021 To 10 April 2022

Charity name: Turvey Overseas Education Support

Charity registration number: 1019483

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the charity are to relieve poverty by providing food or clothing or other useful items and providing monies to fund projects to provide school fees, books and materials or other items for the education and training of children, students and teachers at Christian Churches and Schools in Pakistan as the charity trustees may from time to time think fit and; to fulfil such other purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The Charity has been able to buy the school text books for 130 school students, as well as paying for printing the exam papers and exams results cards.</li><li>2. The Charity started to operate an afternoon class for the classes 9th and 10th students, who had passed the middle schools, but whose parents were unable to afford further education for their children. The very basic education requirement in Pakistan is graduation from class 10. Previously students had been taught up to 8th class.</li><li>3. The Charity also helped to improve the learning environment for students by buying UPS</li></ol>

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Charity and its operations are making real difference to the lives of poor communities. As a result of the Charity's intervention, the absentee students number have decreased. Furthermore, the number of students dropping out of the classes has been reduced. The start of the new classes in the evening has also meant that the girls who would have most probably joined their mothers in the lowly paid domestic workers jobs, before getting married early, would be able to pass their basic school level exams and go on to further education, or learn other basic skills and be able to contribute to the family income, which in turn mean that the parents wouldn't regard them as economic burden and try to marry them at an early age.

Note 5: N/A

Note 6: Brief Note on charity expenditure – Free school text books and writing books for 130 school students were provided, as well as school bags for some children. Their exam papers and exam results cards were paid for. The charity helped to start an afternoon class for the classes 9th and 10th students, who had passed the middle schools, but whose parents are unable to afford further education for their children.

The Charity also helped to improve the learning environment for the school students by buying UPS (Uninterrupted Electric Supplies) device, which overcomes the erratic electricity supply, by storing the electricity when it is available and then using it when the electricity is unavailable, usually three or four times a day. This meant that the studies were not stopped whenever the electric supply was interrupted.

Notes 7-12: N/A

Note 13: Name of School receiving school books, charitable expenditure:

1. 'Parveen J Samuel School', Meo Colony, Chungi Amar Sidhu, Lahore, Pakistan.
2. 'Lord Alton School', Bhatta Road, Raiwand Road, Kahna, Lahore, Pakistan.

130 school students were provided with school text books and writing books and paying teachers' salary. The other charitable expenditure included replacing broken down electric ceiling fans, installing Uninterrupted Power Supply (UPS) device to provide electric supply during regular and daily electric load shedding periods, refurbishing an old toilet, installing a water cooler. The purpose of the expenditure was to improve study environment for very poor school students and persuade their parents not to take school children out of school. Total value of grants given: £ 3180.59.
