Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The boys' and girls' choirs continue to develop. Public awareness of the existence of the choir and the training it offers continues to be raised. Public sung services in the English choral tradition have been performed twice on every Sunday during school term-time and further services and concerts have been offered in public at special times of the year. Music theory training has been offered to all of the choristers. Every chorister is making good progress in music training according to our training syllabus. Strategic planning has been carried out for furthering our charitable objectives, and some key partnerships have been made.

Financial review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	St Peters CIO had an excess of income over expenditure for this financial year. The excess funds remained in working capital. A donation of circa £24000 was received from St Peters Church in order to fund a project to start in 2025 for a cathedral choir. A business plan will be refined and approved by trustees and recruitment starts in first quarter 2025
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	Reserves are held to ensure any essential immediate work can be done
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	We have no committed expenditure and so will only spend money when sums have been raised for the given work
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	We have no committed expenditure and so will only spend money when sums have been raised for the given work
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A

Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	(1) To advance the faith of the Church of England for the benefit of the public through public musical celebration of festivals and choral tuition and through any other means in order to enlighten others and/or further educate others in this faith through the provision of music (2) To maintain and develop the St Peter's choir and its choral tradition with a view to expand such expression of faith in the Bournemouth environs (3) To promote the art of traditional choral music for

		the public benefit (4) To advance the education and training of choristers and adult singers for the public benefit The above objects may include, but are not limited to, the provision of: (i) instrument and/or singing and/or musical theory tuition;(ii) provision of public Christian festivals and services (iii) musical rehearsals; and (iv) musical performance in all cases working in the South of England
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Recruitment of choristers and adult singers, including the production of publicity materials; purchase of printed music and other items necessary for the performance of music; training and tuition of singers, including the purchase of teaching materials.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have had regard to the guidance for the public benefit, specifically to deliver weekly and festival services which are open to all. Choristers and choir members may join at any age after a simple audition. Concerts started again post COVID lockdowns and rehearsals are every Wednesday and Thursday night and Sunday mornings pre the 10 am eucharist.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Most of the vacancies in the girls choir have been filled and a third of the vacancies in the boys choir have been filled. Public awareness of the existence of the choir and the training it offers has been raised. Public sung services in the English choral tradition have been performed twice on every Sunday during school term-time, and further services and concerts have been offered in public at special times of the year. Music theory training has been offered to all of the choristers. Every chorister is making good progress in music training according to our training syllabus, based on continuous assessment and informal examination.
