Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To relieve the needs of those living in the United Kingdom and East of the Democratic Republic of Congo by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The relief of financial hardship, in particular but not exclusively by the provision of grants, items and services to individuals in need of all ages which they could not otherwise afford through lack of means</li> <li>2. The provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life of those persons who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances”.</li> </ol>
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Aura care intl has worked with the provision of food supplies and hot meals to families and children in the east of the Democratic of Congo due to lack of means.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the charity commission on public benefit.

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

(a) buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

(b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;

(c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO; (d) receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

(a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary provided that it is available generally to the beneficiaries of the CIO

(b) All charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.

(c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause all charity trustees or connected persons may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.

(d) All charity trustees or connected persons may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which

		must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate). (e) All charity trustees or connected persons may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion. (f) All charity trustees or connected persons may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the charity commission on public benefit.

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

(a) buy or receive any goods or services from the CIO on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

(b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the CIO;

(c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the CIO; (d) receive any other financial benefit from the CIO;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission (“the Commission”) has been obtained. In this clause, a “financial benefit” means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

Scope and powers permitting trustees’ or connected persons’ benefits

(a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the CIO as a beneficiary provided that it is available generally to the beneficiaries of the CIO

(b) All charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the CIO where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.

(c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause all charity trustees or connected persons may provide the CIO with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the CIO by the charity trustee or connected person.

(d) All charity trustees or connected persons may receive interest on money lent to the CIO at a reasonable and proper rate which

		must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate). (e) All charity trustees or connected persons may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the CIO. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion. (f) All charity trustees or connected persons may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the CIO on the same terms as members of the public.
