Despite schools in Akurala being free to attend, many children face significant barriers to education. Local families often struggle to afford essential school supplies, such as stationery, uniforms, shoes, and bags. Without these basic necessities, children are often unable to attend school. These supplies are essential to ensuring these children can attend school and access the opportunities that education brings.

This year, KFA fundraised to provide the local kindergarten and pre-school children with all of the school supplies and uniforms needed to attend school.
