Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From Period start date 1st January 2024 To
Period end date: 31 December 2024

Charity name: Muslim Forum of Britain (MFB)

Charity registration number: 1195034

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance the education of the public in the subject of Islam and Islamic culture. • To advance the Islamic education of Muslims and to support their development of all aspects of Islamic education and scholarship. • For the public benefit to promote the education (including social and physical training) of people of all ages in the UK in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including by: 1. Awarding to such persons scholarships, maintenance allowances or grants tenable at any university, college or institution of higher or further education. 2. Providing their education (including the study of Islamic arts and calligraphy), to undertake travel in furtherance of that education or to prepare for entry to any occupation, trade or profession on leaving any educational establishment. • To assist in such ways as the charity trustees think fit any charity in the UK, whose aims include advancing Islamic education of persons of all ages by developing their mental, physical and moral capabilities through leisure time activities. • For the public benefit to promote learning for pleasure by people no longer in full time employment through the continued development of their individual capabilities, competencies, skills and understanding in subjects of educational value. • To advance the education of the public in general (and particularly amongst scientists) on Islamic science and to promote research for the public benefit in all aspects of science and technology and to publish the useful results. Religious education and development • To advance the practice of the Islamic religion in the UK for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals, producing and/or distributing literature on Islam to enlighten others about the Islamic religion. Community development • The relief of financial hardship by the provision of free legal advice and assistance to persons who, through lack of means, would otherwise be unable to obtain such advice. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To relieve the mental and physical sickness of persons resident in the UK suffering from bereavement or loss by the provision of counselling and support for such persons.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Regular fortnightly online webinar to educate our members and the public of Islam and its unique culture, and to also build a social and spiritual hub for them. We have helped members and non-members with flexible interest-free loans in their times of need or even gift them when appropriate. Summer family conference in August 2024 at Condover halls, which brings people together across UK, for both members and non-members. This afforded them the opportunity to socialise, and also network, aside providing spiritual education nourishment that we need on a regular basis. In 2023, we launched an outreach – Sadaqah Network to provide vital assistance to the impoverished and indigent masses in Africa, Britain, and around the globe. With a particular emphasis on Africa, we strive to alleviate poverty, promote sustainable development, and empower communities for a better future. Focus areas include poverty alleviation, education & empowerment, Health & wellbeing, Water & sanitation and Emergency relief. We are in the process of finalising the registration of this outreach as a separate Charity for the commencement of full operation of it own. We also held several regular youth conferences discussing issues specific to youth and aimed at empowering, educating and making them good citizens of this country and the world at large. We hold 3 conferences in a year, winter, easter and

		summer conferences, this is a mix of online and face to face conferences. Asie from above we had specific conferences focused on groups like couples , women, men, where we discussed issues related to them, with the hope of fostering strong individuals, couples that will have positive impacts in the society .
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All our activities were undertaken with due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. Our seminars on better understanding of the religion and on health and well being were all aimed at supporting community cohesion and peoples' emotional and health well-being. Our Ramadhan food project provided food and materials to several families irrespective of their demography and background. Our youth activities, seminars and conferences catered for children of all ages and of varying background. In all of these, we were guided by the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Regular fortnightly online webinar to educate our members and the public of Islam and its unique culture, and to also build a social and spiritual hub for them. We also held a seminar talking about importance of blood donation especially within the Muslim community, we hosted this in conjunction with BIMA. Through this we cleared the concerns Muslims have regarding this issue, and we also hope this will go on to increase blood donations from the Muslim community. We have helped members and non-members with flexible loans in their times of need or even gift them when appropriate. Summer family conference in August 2022 at Condover halls, which brings people together across UK, for both members and non-members. This afforded them the opportunity to socialise, and also network, aside providing spiritual education nourishment that we need on a regular basis. We also ran a Ramadhan foodbank, 10 families benefitted from this. We ran several workshops during COVID lockdown, including themes like emotional resilience, Health talks, women empowerment and we even funded a start up for one of the members.

		We also held several regular youth conferences discussing issues specific to youth and aimed at empowering, educating and making them good citizens of this country and the world at large. We hold 3 conferences in a year, winter, easter and summer conferences, this is a mix of online and face to face conferences. We also held couple's seminar aimed at improving the relationship within families and rejuvenising the love as it was at the beginning.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	All our activities were undertaken with due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. Our seminars on better understanding of the religion and on health and well being were all aimed at supporting community cohesion and peoples' emotional and health well-being. Our Ramadhan food project provided food and materials to several families irrespective of their demography and background. Our youth activities, seminars and conferences catered for children of all ages and of varying background. In all of these, we were guided by the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.
