Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the religion of Islam for the public benefit based upon the creed and principles of the Ahlus-Sunnah Wal Jamā'ah as outlined by Imām Abū Hanīfa al-Kūfī, Imām Abū Maṣṣūr al-Māturīdī and Imām Abū al-Ḥasan al-Ash'arī and further expounded by Imām Aḥmad Rīdā Khan Bareillvi;

To advance the education of the public in particular but not exclusively, by providing lectures, teaching, education and research, provision of library, holding prayer meetings, public celebration of religious festivals, producing and/or distributing literature, promoting publications, writings, discussions, gatherings, talks, and by any other means as the trustees shall in their discretion determine to enlighten others about the religion of Islam.

The charity merged with an independent organisation based in Blackburn which teaches traditional Islamic scholarship to young children and adults.

Classes take place Monday to Friday 4:45pm to 8:15pm based on a secular annual term planner.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
