Recently we have enhanced the prayer hall & are making improvements to the education, health provision and community cohesion. We also want to build bridges and remove any misconceptions about the Islamic faith and its followers with the local Council & all the associates including the Metropolitan Police.

Promoting Tolerance and Opposing Extremism

EMD works actively to promote tolerance and understanding and work along with the local mosques, community centre and youth groups. We enjoy excellent interfaith relation with the diverse faith communities and worship in harmony in the area.

Youth and Women: Encouraging Participation

EMD offers a range of services that enable young people and women to engage in a positive and safe environment, with increasing numbers of youth actively engaging in programmes of learning and recreation, dealing with issues of anti-social behaviour, drugs, extremism, and gang culture.

EMD conducts DBS checks on all our trustees and staff which come in contact with children and women.
