Structure, governance and management

Governing document

The Hidden Manna was constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) with the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 14 July 2021 under charity number 1195173. It is governed by a constitution. The principal office of the CIO is in England.

Objects

The objects of the CIO which are for the public benefit, are specifically restricted to the following:

To advance the Christian religion in Liverpool for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals, producing and/or distributing literature on the Christian faith to enlighten others about the Christian religion.

Achievement and Performance

Worship and prayer

The Hidden Manna is a church offering a range of services during the week and over the course of the year that our community find both beneficial and spiritually fulfilling. Best known as “La Manne Cachee” which means The Hidden Manna in French, our church is renting Princes Park Methodist Church premises located in Beaconsfield Street, Liverpool, L8 2UU. We have been using the Methodist premises since 2002. The rent is paid on a monthly basis by bank transfer from the Hidden Manna account to Princes Park Methodist Church account.

According to our contract with the Methodist Church, The Hidden Manna uses the premises on Sundays, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Sunday: Worship Service

Wednesday: Bible study and counselling

Friday: Prayers, healing and deliverance

Saturday: Youth meeting and Choir practice

In this financial year, we had our activities as normal on the days as mentioned, no special activities or event. Our youth service, besides doing Christian activities we are helping youth to learn new skills like drama, playing music instruments. The meeting is gathering many youths from different churches in Liverpool.

Organisational structure

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO. It is the duty of each charity trustee:

To exercise his or powers and to perform his or her functions in his or her capacity as a trustee of the CIO in the way he or she decides in good faith would be most likely to further the purposes of the CIO; and

To exercise, in the performance of those functions, such care and skill as is reasonable in the circumstances having regard in particular to:

- a. Any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or holds himself or herself out as having;and,
- b. If he or she acts as a charity trustee of CIO in the course of a business or profession, to any special knowledge or experience that it is reasonable to expect of a person acting in the course of that kind of business or profession.

Appointment of Charity Trustees

Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.
