FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds for the charity come through the residential and online yoga courses, such as the longer 1 or 2-year courses, and the regular day, weekend/ long weekend/ week long courses. In addition, income is raised through the Ashram Sangha service, accommodation fees, sales of yoga publications, and CDs, and via donations.

Reserves policy

The organisation requires liquid reserves to be held at a level sufficient for the continuance of its activities for a period of six months or more. In the financial year ended 31st December 2024 it is pleasing to note that these reserves are at a sufficient level.

FUTURE PLANS

To continue to offer a professionally run, well managed charity which acts as a centre for the propagation of yoga teaching, practice and study, that is rooted in authentic tradition but applied in a practical and appropriate way to meet the needs of the 21st century. Furthermore, to provide structured yoga practices, guidance and support that can provide a means for yoga students to improve their physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual health and well-being.

The charity trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Commission.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an incorporated charity.

Mandala Yoga Ashram is governed by its constitution as dated 20th March 1985 and amended 3rd April 1996, 31st March 1997, 24th April 2000, 28th March 2005, 23rd March 2008, 1st April 2013, 28th March 2016, 8th April 2017, and 8th April 2018, 20th September 2020, 19th July 2021, and 15th March 2022, and has been a registered charity since 3rd May 1985.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

Trustees are appointed through trustees' meetings by invitation and acceptance.

Organisational structure

Founder Director - Swami Nishchalananda, aka. Peter Beamond

Director - Swami SatyaDaya, aka. Nick Edge

Assistant Director - Swami Krishnapremananda, aka. Chris Evans (resigned October 2024)

Current Manager - Tulsi, aka. Nicola Short

The above are supported by senior members of the Ashram team, with close liaison with the Ashram trustee team. In addition, there is a team of volunteers who commit their time and energies to carry out various functions within the charity such as household, catering, administration, marketing, maintenance and garden/ estate management.

Key management remuneration

Remuneration of Trustees

Ashram trustees receive no payment for their trustee role although periodically they may receive travel expenses to and from trustee meetings. In 2024, two trustees, Chris Evans and Nick Edge, did receive payments from the charity for services completely outside of their trustee role. Both received a subsistence payment to enable them to live on the charity's premises so that they could fulfil their roles as assistant director and director respectively.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. A Risk Management Plan was completed in 2017.

SIGNIFICANT EVENT

In June of 2024 a safeguarding concern, regarding a senior member of the Ashram team, was raised with Sw. Satyadaya/Nick Edge. As per the Ashram's Safeguarding Policy the trustees were informed of this matter and it was decided that an external body, Replenished Life (RL), be appointed to review and investigate the concerns raised.

A number of interviews were arranged by RL with a number of individuals including some current members of the Ashram team and individuals connected/involved in some of the concerns raised. A full report was prepared by RL which was then circulated to the trustees. A number of key recommendations were included in the report that trustees voted, unanimously, upon to enact. A key conclusion of the report was that this do not need to be reported as a Safeguarding matter however we are including these details in this report in the interests of transparency.

This involved the individual concerned being suspended from their role as Assistant Director, from teaching on the current Yoga Teacher Training Course and from being a trustee, a role from which they subsequently resigned.

The report recommended that these suspensions, in time, could be revoked. This would involve an acknowledgement of certain patterns of behaviour that have evidenced over a period time and the undergoing of a process exploring these behaviours, and their impact on others, so that these behaviours and patterns do not repeat in the future. We are exploring options, with the individual concerned, to help facilitate and move forward this process. The report also recommended a number of ways in which the Ashram could enhance its internal processes to protect against any such matters arising in the future. The Ashram has already begun to act on these recommendations and will continue to do

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Mandala Yoga Ashram

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Mandala Yoga Ashram (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Charitable activities from January 1st to Dec 31st, 2023

- Hosted twenty-three residential retreats in the Ashram to enhance participants' well-being, and self-understanding. In addition, we also hosted 18 online day seminars usually over 3 - 6 hours in duration.
- Started our latest Yoga Teacher Training Course in September 2023. 20 students enrolled for the two years, which will finish in July 2025.
- Completed a 10-month Kriya yoga course over 4 separate residential retreats over 2022 and 2023, which finished in May 2023.
- Installed a new woodchip boiler to replace the oil heating system. This came online in June 2023 and will hopefully continue for the next 20 years.
- Continued with limited ongoing renovation work to further upgrade the charity buildings and enhance their suitability for those visiting the Ashram.
- Continued to develop the online subscription service entitled the Ashram Sangha. Almost 200 people took advantage of the regular online teachings and support on offer.
- Produced an online newsletter approximately monthly conveying up to date ashram information and inspiration.
- Continued to improve the governance of the ashram through effective leadership and liaison within the trustee board, continuing to upgrade existing policies and procedures.
- Managed a team of up to 12 full time volunteers who together ensured the smooth daily running of the charity.
- Other volunteers also contributed to the operation of the Ashram in various ways.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds for the charity come through the residential and online yoga courses, such as the longer 1 or 2-year courses, and the regular day, weekend/ long weekend/ weeklong courses. In addition, income is raised through the Ashram Sangha service, accommodation fees, sales of yoga publications, and CDs, and via donations.

Reserves policy

The organisation requires liquid reserves to be held at a level sufficient for the continuance of its activities for a period of six months or more. In the financial year ended 31st December 2023 it is pleasing to note that these reserves are at a sufficient level.

FUTURE PLANS

To continue to offer a professionally run, well managed charity which acts as a centre for the propagation of yoga teaching, practice and study, that is rooted in authentic tradition but applied in a practical and appropriate way to meet the needs of the 21st century. Furthermore, to provide structured yoga practices, guidance and support that can provide a means for yoga students to improve their physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual health and well-being.

The charity trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Commission.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Mandala Yoga Ashram (the Trust) for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities from July 19 2021 to Dec 31st 2022

- Hosted twenty-six residential retreats in the Ashram to enhance participants' well-being, and self-understanding. In addition, we also hosted 23 online day seminars from 1-2 days in duration.
- Continued with and completed in April 2022, our latest Yoga Teacher Training Course. 16 people graduated from the course as trained yoga teachers, while another 2 will soon graduate provided they finish their remaining modules. A new training course will start in September 2023.
- Completed the six-month 2021 Yoga Nidra training course all online, and also the 2022 Yoga Nidra training course.
- Started a 10-month Kriya yoga course over 4 separate residential retreats over 2022 and 2023. It will finish in May 2023.
- Rebuilt the residential hut that had burnt down in December 2021. Also continued with limited ongoing renovation work to further upgrade the charity buildings and enhance their suitability for those visiting the Ashram.
- Continued to develop the Ashram website and online marketing features especially using the Kajabi platform to create a new and beneficial platform into the online yoga world. In May 2022, a new online subscription service was introduced called the Ashram Sangha, offering very regular online teachings for a monthly subscription of £25. For the first year, over 200 people accepted a £100 special offer to cover 12 months. At the time of writing, 276 people are subscribed.
- Produced an online newsletter approximately monthly conveying up to date ashram information and inspiration.
- Continued to improve the governance of the ashram through effective leadership and liaison within the trustee board, continuing to upgrade existing policies and procedures.
- Managed a team of up to 12 full time volunteers who together ensured the smooth daily running of the charity.
- Other volunteers also contributed to the operation of the Ashram in various ways.

MANDALA YOGA ASHRAM

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

- The charity changed to four new Barclays accounts in May 2022, in line with the change of charity status in 2021. The old accounts are still 'live' although they will be closed in early 2023.

Public benefit

The charity trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Commission.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds for the charity come through the residential and online yoga courses, such as the longer 1 or 2-year courses, and the regular day, weekend/ long weekend/ weeklong courses. In addition, income is raised through the Ashram Sangha service, accommodation fees, sales of yoga publications, and CDs, and via donations.

Reserves policy

The organisation requires liquid reserves to be held at a level sufficient for the continuance of its activities for a period of six months or more. At 31 December 2022 the charity had free reserves of £105,775 and a designated renovation fund of £60,710. It is pleasing to note that these reserves are at a sufficient level.

FUTURE PLANS

To continue to offer a professionally run, well managed charity which acts as a centre for the propagation of yoga teaching, practice and study, that is rooted in authentic tradition but applied in a practical and appropriate way to meet the needs of the 21st century. Furthermore, to provide structured yoga practices, guidance and support that can provide a means for yoga students to improve their physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual health and well-being.

In 2023, the Ashram will purchase a woodchip boiler and associated tariff at a total cost of £93,000. This will obviously change the financial landscape of the charity for a few years, reducing our reserves considerably, but the Ashram trustees have decided to implement this change for the long-term sustainable future of the property. With both the income from the tariff, and the savings in oil expenses, the forecast is to recoup all of the investment within around 7 years from now, and further savings will come subsequently for the 12-year lifetime of the tariff, plus savings in oil expenses.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a CIO Foundation Constitution, registered on 19 July 2021 and as amended on 15 June 2022.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

Trustees are appointed through trustees' meetings by invitation and acceptance.

Organisational structure

Founder Director - Swami Nishchalananda, aka. Peter Beamond

Director - Swami SatyaDaya, aka. Nick Edge

Assistant Director - Swami Krishnapremananda, aka. Chris Evans

Current Manager - Anandadevi, aka. Sandra O'Shea

The above are supported by senior members of the Ashram team, with close liaison with the Ashram trustee team. In addition, there is a team of volunteers who commit their time and energies to carry out various functions within the charity such as household, catering, administration, marketing, maintenance and garden/ estate management.

Key management remuneration

Remuneration of Trustees

Ashram trustees receive no payment for their trustee role although periodically they may receive travel expenses to and from trustee meetings. In 2021 and 2022 two trustees, Chris Evans and Nick Edge, did receive payments from the charity for services completely outside of their trustee role. Both received a subsistence payment to enable them to live on the charity's premises so that they could fulfil their roles as assistant director and director respectively.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF MANDALA YOGA ASHRAM

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Mandala Yoga Ashram

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Mandala Yoga Ashram (the Trust) for the period 19 July 2021 to 31 December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a registered member of BSc (Econ) FCA CTA which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
