- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Charity has policies for:

- Risk management
- Safeguarding vulnerable beneficiaries
- Conflicting interests
- Volunteer management
- Complaints handling

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are: 1) The promotion of religious harmony for the benefit of the public by: (a) educating the public in different religious beliefs including an awareness of their distinctive features and their common ground to promote good relations between persons of different faiths; (b) promoting knowledge and mutual understanding and respect of the beliefs and practices of different religious faiths. 2) The relief of financial hardship and poverty in the United Kingdom by providing such persons with food and items which they could not otherwise afford through lack of means.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	The CIO is to be established and run for the benefit of the inhabitants of the United Kingdom. nothing in this constitution shall authorise an application of the property of the CIO for the purposes which are not charitable in accordance with [section 7 of the charities and trustee investment (Scotland) act 2005] and [section 2 of the charities act (Northern Ireland) 2008]. Campaign to help with food packages for the poor and needy people in the community where the charity operates. Carrying out interfaith work through co-operating with a local church in serving the needs of the community. Creating literature, videos and other forms of educational material to further understanding of religion. Establishing an interfaith event to promote greater harmony and cooperation between individuals from different faiths. The Trustees have read, understood and are following the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance and have pledged to act only in the best interests of the charity for the public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Most of the initial donations have been made by the trustees themselves. The expenses of various things have also been covered by the trustees rather than using the funds of the charity.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Strong fundraising efforts and campaigns resulted in an income of GBP 8885 for the very first reporting period. This was used by the charity to continue its public benefit in 2022. The Middle Community successfully organised fundraising events for supporting poor and needy people in the local community.

We have given out food to people who are in need of it. We have partnered up with a church to help them expand their food bank service.

On 3rd December 2022, we have hosted an event called, “Jesus the Bridge Between us”, promoting interfaith unity between Muslims and Christians.

We have written and released a book about the life of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) in order to educate the general public. All the proceeds of this book entitled, “The Messenger of Mercy: A Call in Makkah” will go to the Middle Community Charity in order to further our other projects.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The Charity aims to keep at least 10% of its expected annual operating capital in reserve at all times.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	There are no funds materially in deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about: • the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising); • how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity; • investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.	The charity's principal sources of funds are the donations from the general public and Trustees. Some general expenses required for the establishment and growth of the charity have been covered by the Trustees in a personal capacity in order to restrict the use of the funds donated to the charity to directly achieving the objectives.

Section F Other optional information

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
