2. Structure, governance and management

SVC Helping Hands International is constituted as a charitable company limited by guarantee and is governed by its constitution and trust deed dated 30 Jul 2022 .

The trustees are appointed in accordance with the provisions set out in the governing document.

3. Objectives and activities

The charity's charitable objects are to relieve poverty and advance education among disadvantaged communities, nationally and internationally.

Due to the absence of funding and operational capacity in the year, the charity did not undertake any charitable activities between 1 April 2023 and 31 March 2024.

4. Achievements and performance

There was no income, expenditure or operational activity during the reporting period, so the charity has no achievements or performance to report for this year.

5. Financial review

- Total income for the year: £0
- Total expenditure for the year: £0
- Funds carried forward at 31 March 2024: £0

The charity held no reserves, investments or other assets during the year. There were no liabilities, borrowings or commitments at the year end.

The trustees consider that the charity remains a going concern as they intend to seek funding and commence activities in future periods, subject to available resources.

6. Public benefit

In planning the charity's future activities, the trustees will have regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. As there was no activity in the year, there is no additional public benefit information to report.

7. Risk management

Given that no activity or funds were held during the year, the level of risk was minimal. The trustees will implement appropriate financial controls and safeguarding procedures once operations commence.

8. Trustee remuneration, benefits and related parties

No trustee received any remuneration, benefits or reimbursement of expenses from the charity during the year. There were no related party transactions.

9. Plans for future periods

The trustees intend to explore opportunities for fundraising and partnership working in order to begin delivering the charity's objects in future years, subject to securing sufficient resources.

Approved by the trustees on [date] and signed on their behalf:

Trustee (Chair) Sylvia Duval

Trustee (Treasurer) Cordelia Fubara
